Kendra J. Lewis
THE BOSS ARCHITECT

After 13 years in corporate, I took all my big business, fortune 500 knowledge and went out to give entrepreneurs and small business owners a leg up.

I'm a mom of two, wife, adventurer, freedom lover, and firm believer in the power of the human spirit.

THE BOSS ARCHITECT

Small business owners are the power of our culture. They are where the heart and soul is. They are where the real magic and the great work happens.

My purpose here is to guide small business owners to greatness and break down barriers that have been thrust in their way.

From setting up businesses for success to breathing new life into tired business owners, I've done it all. Now, I want to offer your audience a power-shot of tough love and on-the-spot transformation.
