MY CORE VALUES

Honesty

I'll make sure we price your home for the best results (SOLD!) Many other agents will tell you what you want to hear to get the listing contract signed. I see myself as trusted advisor, or a bff in this process...not a just a closer.

Informative

Information is key in a large decision making process like selling your home! It's my job to provide you with information about the process, stay on top of timelines and deliver prompt and key information so you can make the BEST decisions for you.

Preparation

Being prepared (just like providing this presentation) helps my sellers have peace of mind knowing they've hired an agent that has process, policy and procedure down pat. As they say, "fail to prepare and prepare to fail".

May 2014

I Just wanted to write a quick note about how Erin Best conducted the sale of my home. Right from the start when we met to go over the “comparables” in my area Erin was efficient, organized and timely. When we met again in the house I truly appreciated her no non-sense approach to preparing the home. My house was 30 years old and had been a rental. She was realistic about what I needed to do to stage the home and she also saw the potential in a little bit of sweat equity. She even brought in her own curtains, throw pillows and other items to help me show the home. Her tips and ideas were wonderful and made the house look fantastic! Once the house was listed and showings were occurring, she went so far as to drive to my house to help a realtor get in. My keys weren't working and she climbed through a window, with my permission and direction, to let the clients in. And as a result... that buyer purchased my home! Erin goes above and beyond to help prepare and sell your home. She truly is the Best!

RESULTS THAT SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES

June 2017

My partner and I are extremely busy, when it came time to purchase our house we became overwhelmed. There was so much we didn't know, Erin was a great help in navigating the details and time consuming parts of buying a house. She made it so easy for us and found us houses faster than we ever could. She was quick, informative, and accommodating to our hectic schedule. Erin helped us get home better than what we dreamed we could get. And she did it all with great professionalism and a wonderful welcoming personality.

April, 2019

Last Spring, we had the pleasure of selling our home through the Erin Best Real Estate Team. Although I did have an emotional attachment to our home as it was located in the neighbourhood I grew up, and where my parent still currently live- it was essentially something I viewed as a long-term investment. Now that our children were teenagers we decided moving Downtown into a condo would be a new adventure, and we had built enough equity in our home for the investment to finally pay off. As you can imagine, there was a lot of emotional consideration which Erin handled with great care and decorum. She reminded me of things I already knew “like the first offer is usually the best” and was open minded to my listing price suggestions. Erin had at her disposal a great team of professionals who made our home look wonderful online, and proud of all the hard work we put into the property for sale. At no time did we feel “out of the loop” or abandoned in the sale, she was responsive and warm the whole way through. We were happy to accept an offer on the first day of showings for 98% of list price. Furthermore, she patiently showed us numerous properties and helped us put in three offers, that all failed on condo documents. At no time did she pressure us or make us feel guilty for not purchasing- even when we just decided to rent. I would not hesitate in recommending Erin Best for any matter in a real estate transaction.
