Soothing Skincare Spotlight: Rosehip Oil

Just in time for National Stress Awareness Day (this Tuesday!), we're highlighting the extra-calming properties of rosehip oil in our latest blog post, so you and your skin can stay zen indefinitely.

Sorry, Sulfates! We're Staying Skin-Friendly 😊

On our list of Terrible Toxins, sulfates work to increase foam and bind ingredients together.

Finding sulfates in your personal care products isn't difficult to do (unfortunately). Continued use may cause redness, dryness, itchiness and has even been linked to cancer-causing carcinogens.

Our Organic Coconut Pre-Cleanse Oil is sulfate-free and smells incredible, and melts your makeup right off.
