

COACHING FOR CREATORS

welcome guide

UP FIRST: LET'S CONNECT!

Office Hours: I'll be available to chat on Voxer from 10 AM - 2 PM CST, Tuesday - Thursday.

I will do my absolute best to be at your disposal, but please give me a little time for responses as I may be in podcast interviews or meetings! You're welcome to message me any day, any time - just know I'll be responding during office hours!

BOOK YOUR CALLS

Included in your Coaching for Creators membership is five 45 minute one-on-one calls.

You're required to use your first call within the first week of the program beginning, but the other four are to be used whenever you see fit, even outside your program window.

You can use one each month the program runs OR choose to hold onto a few for follow ups.

Additionally, you can book all five calls right now OR wait until you feel the need to use them. There are limited spots in my coaching calendar, but it is always open.
