The Lord IS NEAR TO THOSE who are DISCOURAGED;
HE SAVES THOSE
who have LOST ALL HOPE.

————— Psalm 34:18 (GNT)

HOPE FOR GRIEF COMMUNITY

Find hope after loss, turn pain into purpose, and connect to a community that cares.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 11 | 1:00 PM

Everything changes when we lose a loved one. If you've lost a loved one and are looking for support on your grief journey, there's hope! Join us for the Hope for Grief Community Launch Event. This special gathering is for anyone grieving, or for those who would like to better serve someone struggling through loss.

We'll start with worship and a special greeting from Pastors Andy and Stacie Wood, followed by a message by Pastor Dave Page on The Power of Having Your Grief Witnessed. Afterwards, there will be a time of Q&A. You don't have to journey through your grief alone, especially during the holidays. Don't miss this amazing opportunity to discover a community of support.
