

THE MOTHER-DAUGHTER TEAM BEHIND VACATIONFUNDRAISING.ORG

National fundraising platform is under new Andover family ownership

ANDOVER, Mass. – Aug. 12, 2024 – VacationFundraising.org, a leading fundraising platform that provides fundraisers across the country with risk-free travel packages, is under new ownership.

Andover, Mass., resident Christa Sabatini and her daughter, Vivienne, took ownership of VacationFundraising.org in July and are eager to bring a fresh vision to the company's fundraising mission. The venture is a true family business with Christa overseeing the operation and newly-minted middle-schooler Vivienne handling client outreach.

"Vivienne and I are ready to dive in and assist communities and organizations in growing donations to their fundraisers," Christa Sabatini stated. "At VacationFundraising.org we are passionate about increasing visibility of our clients' worthy causes."

VacationFundraising.org has been known for its innovative approach to fundraising, and the new owners are committed to maintaining that reputation. With a focus on energy and excitement the Sabatinis aim to help fundraisers reach their goals and make a positive impact in their communities.
