LITTLE ABOUT ME

Specialising in family and newborn photography in Harrogate, Yorkshire to capture, celebrate and remember the natural moments of your lives. Combining storytelling images with beautiful portraits, together we will record memories that you and your children will cherish.

I am obsessed with capturing families and newborns in a way that is real, romantic, and full of life and I absolutely fall in love with every single family who trusts me to capture them.

MY WORLD

"We booked a family shoot with Charlotte. The shoot was great fun, we all felt very at ease not like a normal photo shoot! Thank you Charlotte for capturing those precious moments, we will treasure them."

- Helen Hirst

"We had an amazing outdoor family photoshoot with Charlotte to celebrate my Mum's special birthday. Charlotte put us all at ease, including my 2 young children and the experience was a good laugh as well as having an amazing album of both colour and black and white images to cherish. I would recommend her to anyone wanting a similar shoot, wedding photography, newborn or commercial work for an easy, personable approach to get amazing photos that bring out the best in the subjects captured."

- Helena Young

CAPTURE THE LITTLE THINGS & THE BIG FEELINGS

"I had such a wonderful experience having photos taken by Charlotte. She made me feel completely at ease throughout the entire experience.

She had great communication throughout the process and the photographs are gorgeous - I couldn't believe how many she managed to capture within the time.

Her prices are very reasonable and worth every penny, but most of all she is a genuinely lovely person and it was a pleasure to meet her."
