Hey there! I'm so glad you're here!

If you're feeling overwhelmed by all the family portrait options out there, don't worry—you're not alone. I'm here to help make the process a little easier during what can be a busy time for many families. It doesn't have to be stressful!

My mission is to ensure your family portrait experience is smooth and enjoyable so you can focus on creating beautiful memories together.

Brooke Tobin Photography is based out of Los Angeles and captures timeless moments for families all over Southern California.

TIPS FOR A STRESS-FREE PORTRAIT SESSION

CLOTHING

Choose Mom's outfit first, then build the rest of the family's outfits around it. Opt for soft, light tones to keep the focus on your faces and highlight your family's connection.

SELF-CARE & PAMPERING

Indulge in some self-care by getting your nails done and by booking a professional hair and makeup artist. It'll give you a confidence boost and one less thing to worry about.

PREP DAD AND THE KIDS

Men may not always be excited about taking photos, but a quick chat about how important these memories are to you can really help. Ensure your little ones are well-fed before the session, and bring along some extra snacks and a surprise treat for afterward.

HAVE FUN!

Be patient with yourself and your family. Kids have their own rhythms, and not every day goes as planned. You'll still capture great photos—just remember to have fun!
