Redeemed RENO

with Susie Robb

Hey girl, HEY!

Meet Interior Designer & Influencer, Susie Robb

Susie Robb Brinck is an interior designer, shop owner of the online home decor store "From: Susie", author, philanthropist, wife and mother of five! Growing up in West Texas, her love of interiors began under the study of her grandmother and piles of Traditional Home and Southern Living Magazine. Her passion for design can be seen in her portfolio of remodeling projects, the home décor products she designs for her store, her quarterly self-published magazine and her work with her non-profit interior design firm, the 626 Foundation. Through her 501(c)3, she designs and fully furnishes spaces for families that have undergone hardship. Visit 626foundation.org for more info.

Susie hopes to continue to share uplifting content that encourages and inspires others through storytelling on her social media platforms, philanthropy work and media outlets both on television and in print, including her self published quarterly magazine, HomeMade.

CURRENT ENDEAVORS

HomeMade MAGAZINE

Quarterly, Susie self-publishes her exclusive magazine, HomeMade: The Makers' Almanac. Each edition includes over 125 pages of full color photos and features Susie's latest projects, home tours, recipes + DIY's, spiritual inspiration and in-depth articles on inspirational women of faith. We encourage our readers to shop responsibly, supporting local makers + movements.

Turn it Over PODCAST

Turn it Over with Susie and Rob Brinck is a faith-based podcast about the growing pains in blending families after divorce and remarriage. Once hosted by Christian Parenting, the show received accolades as the fastest growing podcast for the network. New episodes are set to launch Spring of 2023 under new ownership.

626 FOUNDATION

Susie's personal ministry and mission is the core of the 626 Foundation: a non-profit interior design firm that offers no-cost design services to families effected by life's unexpected tragedies; including but not limited to divorce, miscarriage, widowhood, and illness

Her heart for service is the belief that when we can honor the past and breathe fresh air into the present, we can give people hope for the future. A future that starts at home.
