PHOTOGRAPHY

HI THERE, nice meeting you!

Kira Jeffrey Photography provides experienced, professional quality photography sessions in Charlotte, NC. With a fully stocked studio located in Indian Trail and knowledge of great locations for outdoor sessions, every session is precisely planned to create your vision.

I dedicate my services to capturing your family's journey with your new baby through their first year of life, so the precious fleeting moments stand the test of time.

As a photographer and a mom, I've learned the importance of photographing my little ones, even when I barely have time to shower. Balancing life with a new baby can be exhausting, and the time goes by way too fast.

My goal is to capture your baby throughout their first year of life and beyond, so you always have the memories to look back on while life gets ahead of you.
