“There are two births of Christ, one unto the world in Bethlehem; the other in the soul, when it is spiritually reborn...This is the second Bethlehem, or the personal relationship of the individual heart to the Lord Christ.”

— Ven. Fulton Sheen

Dear Families and Friends of St. Peter the Apostle Catholic School,

Throughout the month of November, we focused on the virtue of gratitude. There are countless things to be grateful for, both big and small, from dear friends and family to the simple joys of chocolate, hot water, books, and recess. Gratitude deepens our appreciation for our many blessings and our connection with the Lord, the giver of all good gifts. There is something beautifully fitting about our national celebration of Thanksgiving occurring just before the start of Advent. This spirit of gratitude serves as a strong foundation for our Advent journey, a time to prepare our hearts to most fully receive, with gratitude, love, and joy, the greatest gift of all – God Himself.

The excitement for Christmas is so great, and because of this, the Church reminds us that Advent is a time of waiting – waiting for the celebration of our Lord's first coming in Bethlehem, waiting for his final coming at the end of time, and waiting for him to come more fully into our own hearts. The more fully we wait, the more fully we will be able to enter the joy of Christmastime! The Mass readings throughout the coming weeks that feature the Israelites' longing for the Messiah, John the Baptist's witness, and Joseph's dream. Nativity scenes are set up with an empty manger to remind us to prepare our heart as a fitting home for the Savior. The Advent wreath, with its circular shape representing God's unending love for us, evergreen branches symbolizing the gift of everlasting life, and candles representing Christ as the light of the world, decorates our church, classrooms, and homes. At school, each classroom has its own Advent wreath which teachers integrate into daily prayer. Classes are also undertaking service projects to answer Christ's call to recognize him in the poor and suffering.

The following events will also help us enter more fully into this season:

- Our Lady of Guadeloupe Parish Celebration – December 12.
View flyer with schedule of events at stpetersboerne.com/announcements.
- Christmas Caroling Service Opportunity – December 14
@ 4:00 pm, Avir at Boerne (1102 River Rd. Boerne, TX 78006).
RSVP at <https://tinyurl.com/caroling-2025>.
- Nativity Play (performed by Theater Club) – Friday, December 19 at 1:30 pm in the Cana Ballroom.

Let us pray that, through our preparations, both those we undertake as a school community and those we live individually, Christmas Day will “find us more and more like him, who at this time became a little child for our sake, more simple-minded, more humble, more holy, more affectionate, more resigned, more happy, more full of God” (St. John Henry Newman, “The Mystery of Godliness”)!

Joyfully in Christ,
Ms. Brintnall, Principal

December Virtue of the Month: Respect*

Also known as: Reverence

Definition of Respect: Speaking and acting according to our own and others' rights, status, and circumstances; expressing regard or deference to another person.

Prayer for Respect:

Dear Jesus, help me to show reverence to people who are in authority over me as I would to You. And help me give all persons the honor they deserve as Your unique creations.

Respect Looks Like:

- Only saying nice things about your siblings and classmates
- Listening attentively to others
- Not laughing at others
- Listening the first time and discontinuing an action when someone asks you to stop
- Bowing before the altar/genuflecting before the tabernacle

Respect Sounds Like:

- Only saying things that are kind, true, and helpful
- He is really good at...
- It is not nice to laugh at people.
- I will stop doing that.
- Silence

*Material that follows taken from Education in Virtue curriculum from OpenLight Media.

December Family Faith Challenge: "O Come Let Us Adore Him!" – Adoration

There is something profoundly joyful about hearing the opening chords to "O Come, All Ye Faithful!" at Christmas Mass. When hearing these lyrics, many of us picture the shepherds, wise men, even the stable animals coming to adore Christ in the manger that first Christmas, and perhaps we can even imagine ourselves being present there in their midst. However, with our Lord really and truly present among us in the Eucharist, we are blessed with the opportunity to truly adore him now. As we prepare our hearts to welcome the Christ child in a renewed way this Christmas, our Family Faith Challenge will be to come adore him in the Blessed Sacrament throughout the Advent season. We invite you to sign up for a 15-minute time slot on Wednesdays or Fridays after school in the Day Chapel (sign up at signupgenius.com/go/10C0E48A8A928AAFE3-58432052-adoration), drop by the tabernacle for 5 minutes after Sunday Mass each week, or commit to incorporating adoration with your family in a new way during the Advent season. Give him whatever time you are able, no matter how small, and see what wonders he works through it!

"Out of the darkness of my life, so much frustrated, I put before you the one great thing to love on earth: the Blessed Sacrament... There you will find romance, glory, honour, fidelity, and the true way of all your loves on earth..." -J.R.R. Tolkien

No matter how your family takes on this challenge, we would love to see photos and feature you in a future newsletter! Pictures can be sent to bulletin@stpetersboerne.com!

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

Hymnary.org

1 O come, O come, Immanuel,
and ransom captive Israel
that mourns in lonely exile here
until the Son of God appear.

Refrain:

Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.

2 O come, O Wisdom from on high,
who ordered all things mightily;
to us the path of knowledge show
and teach us in its ways to go. Refrain

3 O come, O come, great Lord of might,
who to your tribes on Sinai's height
in ancient times did give the law in cloud and majesty and awe. Refrain

4 O come, O Branch of Jesse's stem, unto your own and rescue them!
From depths of hell your people save,
and give them victory o'er the grave. Refrain

5 O come, O Key of David, come and open wide our heavenly home.
Make safe for us the heavenward road and bar the way to death's abode. Refrain

6 O come, O Bright and Morning Star,
and bring us comfort from afar!
Dispel the shadows of the night and turn our darkness into light. Refrain

7 O come, O King of nations, bind
in one the hearts of all mankind.
Bid all our sad divisions cease and be yourself our King of Peace. Refrain

Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

December 12

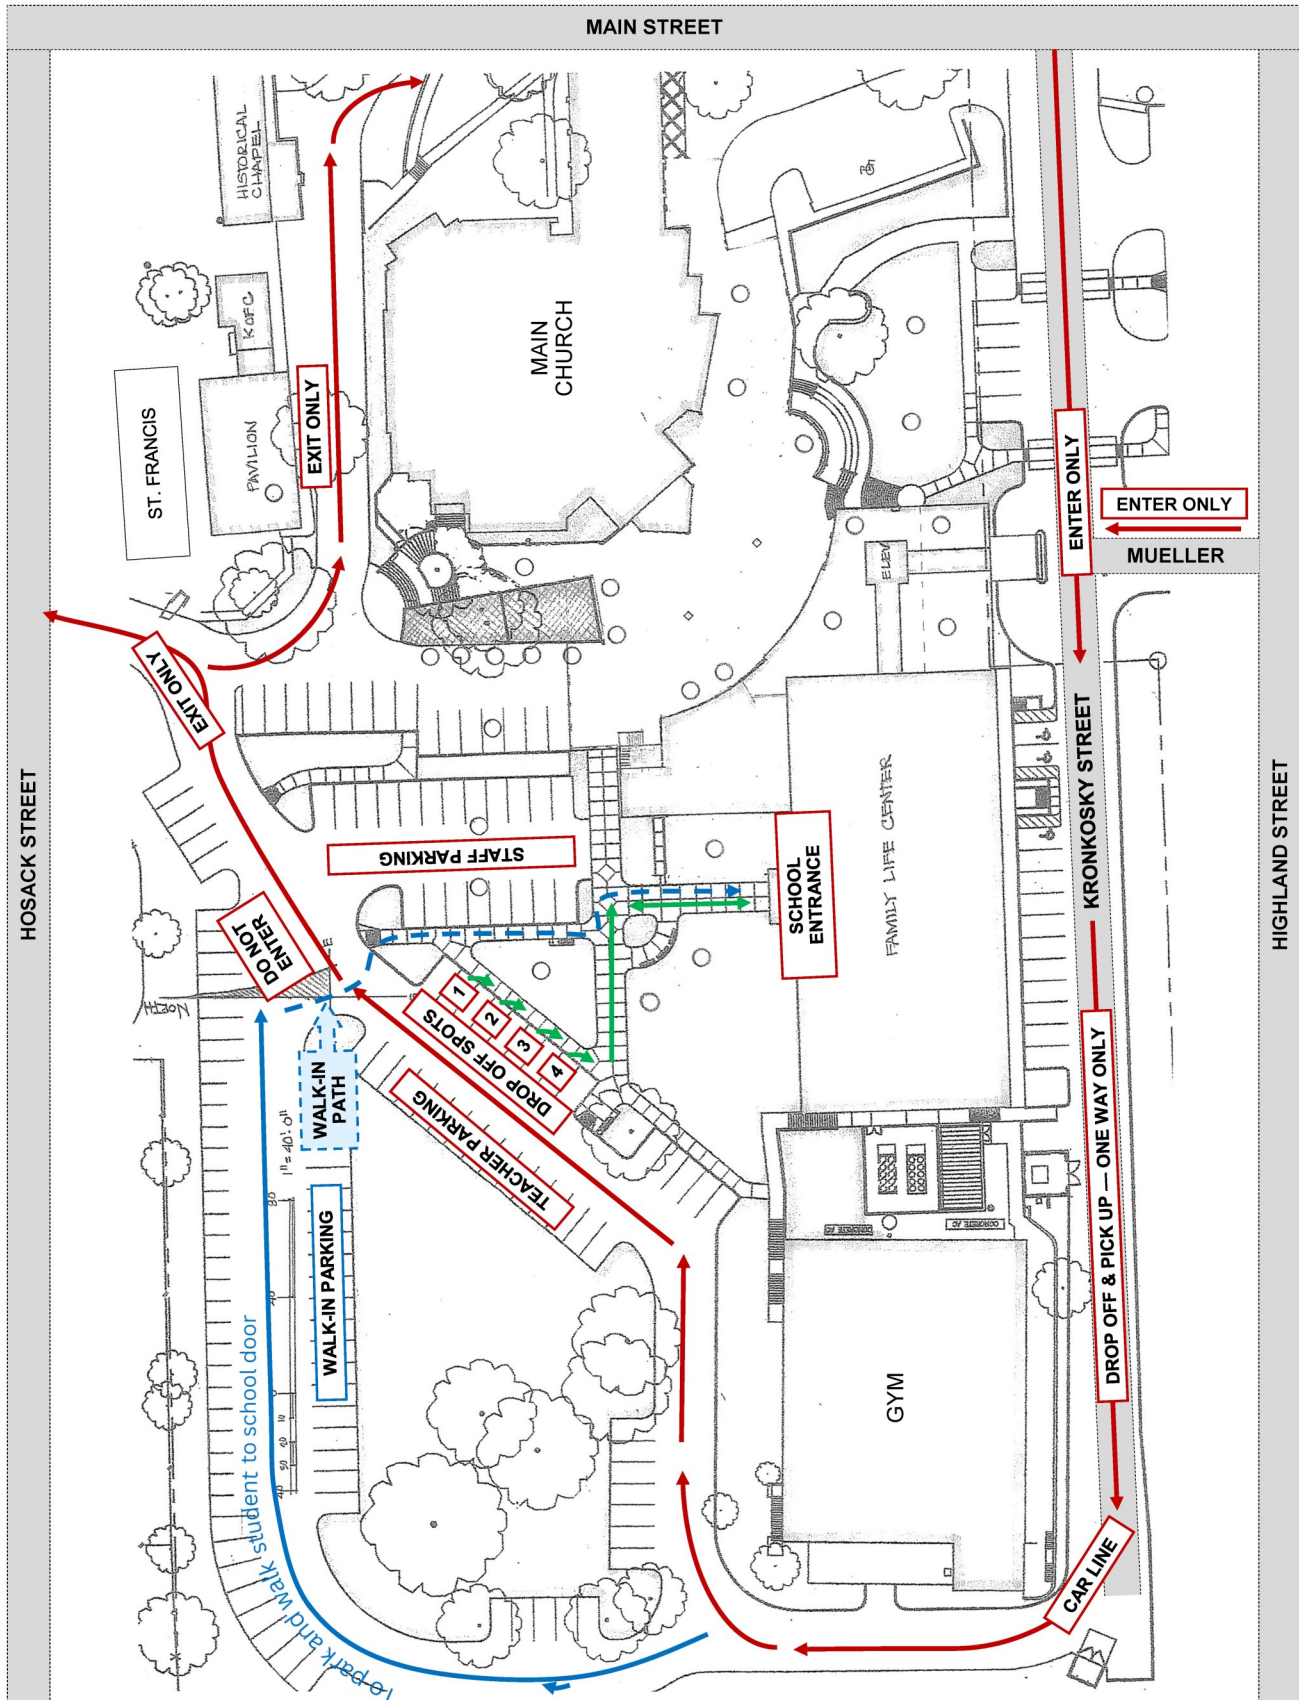

The four apparitions of Our Lady of Guadalupe took place in December 1531, when Juan Diego, an indigenous convert to the Catholic faith, encountered a woman dressed as an Aztec princess on Tepeyac Hill in present-day Mexico City. The woman, who was pregnant, spoke to him in his native language. She identified herself as the Mother of God.

Over the next four apparitions, Our Lady requested that Juan Diego implore the local bishop to build a church on the hill, and performed miracles to prove her identity. Through one of the miracles, she imprinted her image onto Juan Diego's tilma, or cloak; the tilma bearing that image can still be viewed today at the basilica which now stands on the site of the apparition.

Our Lady of Guadalupe is venerated as the Patroness of the Americas, and she is beloved worldwide as a symbol of motherhood, faith and identity. Her feast day is Dec. 12. ©LPi
