The deduction for taxpayers making contributions to a Traditional IRA is phased out for singles and heads of household who are covered by a workplace retirement plan and have modified adjusted gross incomes between $73,000 and $83,000. For married couples filing jointly, in which the spouse who makes the IRA contribution is covered by a workplace retirement plan, the income phase-out range is $116,000 to $136,000. For a Traditional IRA contributor who is not covered by a workplace retirement plan and is married to someone who is covered, the deduction is phased out if the couple's income is between $218,000 and $228,000. If your filing status is Single, Head of Household, Qualifying Widower, Married Filing Jointly or Separately, there is no limit to your AGI and you can take a deduction up to the amount of the contribution limit.

The adjusted gross income phase-out range for taxpayers making contributions to a Roth IRA is $218,000 to $228,000 for married couples filing jointly. For singles and heads of household, the income phase-out range is $138,000 to $153,000. For a married individual filing a separate return who is covered by a retirement plan at work, the phase-out range remains $0 to $10,000.
