This Course Enrollment Agreement (“Agreement”) is a binding contract between you (“Student,” “you,” or “your”) and Atelier Capretto LLC (“Company,” “we,” “us,” or “our”). By enrolling in any course, program, or membership hosted by our Company (“Course”), you agree to the following terms:

1. Digital Product Access

Upon enrollment and successful payment, you will receive access to the Course content. Access is granted solely for your personal, non-commercial use.

You may not share:

- Login credentials
- Course materials
- Downloads or design templates
- Video links or access portals

We reserve the right to revoke access for violations of this Agreement.

2. Refunds

All course sales are final. Because digital materials are delivered immediately upon enrollment, we do not offer refunds, in full or in part, in accordance with our Refund & Returns Policy.

3. Intellectual Property

All Course content — including but not limited to:

- Drafting instructions and sewing techniques
- Templates, files, worksheets, and downloads
- Videos, illustrations, images, and written lessons

— is owned and copyrighted by Atelier Capretto LLC.

Unauthorized copying, distribution, or commercial use is strictly prohibited.

4. Technology Requirements

Students must ensure they have:

- A stable internet connection
- A device capable of streaming video content
- Basic software to open PDF or downloadable files

- (If applicable) Adobe Illustrator for digitizing lessons

We are not responsible for performance issues caused by your device, bandwidth, or home setup.

5. Payment Plans (If Applicable)

For payment plan enrollments:

- Payments must be made on schedule
- Access may be revoked if payments fail or remain past due
- Full payment must be completed to maintain course access

You are responsible for updating payment details if changes occur.

6. Student Conduct

We expect a respectful learning environment. Harassment, abusive communication, or disruption of any community experience (if available) may result in removal from the Course without refund.

7. Personal Responsibility & Results Disclaimer

We teach professional techniques and encourage best practices. However, your success depends on your own effort, skill, and commitment.

We do not guarantee:

- That garments will fit perfectly on the first attempt
- Specific learning outcomes or skill mastery
- Personal style or creative results

You acknowledge full responsibility for your own progress.

8. Termination

We may terminate your access for:

- Violations of these terms
- Abuse of payment plans
- Unauthorized sharing or piracy

No refunds will be issued if access is terminated for cause.

9. Privacy

Your enrollment and participation are also governed by our Privacy Policy, located on our Site.

10. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Washington, USA. Any disputes will be handled in state or federal courts located in Washington.
