THE LOOK: Room to Grow

THE DESIGNER: Allison Willson

POINT OF VIEW: "I wanted this space to feel bright, inspiring and cool, but I didn't want it to be overdecorated," says Allison. "Oliver is five and he can add to the walls over time with his little creations!" The statement lighting fills the large ceiling space, and vintage bedside tables and lamps give the room some soul.

"Say yes to their colours and art. A neutral base and good, strong furniture – whether antique or new – makes any space fun!"

THE LOOK: Airy Contemporary

THE DESIGNER: Allison Willson

WHY WE LOVE IT: Book-matched Calacatta marble slabs create a dramatic backdrop for this principal bathroom's sculptural tub. The window is set low enough that the homeowner can enjoy the view while having a relaxing soak, and a decorative branch adds to the indoor-outdoor feeling.
