In-Home Lifestyle Sessions:

What are in-home lifestyle sessions?

These sessions are designed to show the rawness of your family in the comfort and privacy of your own home.

Who are these sessions for?

These sessions are perfect for general portraits, couples, family's, maternity and children. I do photograph newborns in this setting, but I don't supply any props or outfits.

What do you need to wear?

I always recommend neutral tones for any session. If you have a darker lit home, I also recommend steering away from pure black or deeply dark outfits.

What about the light in my home?

During an in-home lifestyle session, I like to use natural light where I can. This creates a beautiful homely mood to your images. My style is prominently earthy and raw, so this will easily adapt to the light in your home no matter how dark or light your home may be.

You don't need a show home...

I am all for capturing your family in your home to share your home environment no matter what it looks like. These sessions are about the rawness of your family life.

What options are there for in-home sessions ?

We can just move through your home and capture your family in the rooms as we go. Or you can opt for a kitchen session to share with your kids or other half where you can cook up a feast or even bake a cake for a little more fun. If you would like a couple or boudoir session this can also be done in-home.

What if my kids get cranky?

I am brilliant with cranky kids and partners (lol). So if someone is out of sorts, we can either re-schedule or keep photographing the crankiness (always a fun set of images to have), or we can wait it out and take a break, have a cuppa and get the kids something to snack on. I can continue photographing while this is happening. It makes for a true and raw family session.

How to book in a session?

You can contact me via email, phone, website or social media. We can then work out a date that suits and I will send you a session invoice. Once the non-refundable booking fee has been paid and digital agreement is signed, you will be officially booked in for your session. Contacts are below.
