What's It About?

LET IT GLOW is a middle-grade novel about identical twin sisters separated at birth who meet by chance at tryouts for a holiday pageant. Swapping homes for the holidays – what could possibly go wrong? When Aviva Davis and Holly Martin meet at the holiday pageant tryouts for their local senior's center, they think they must be seeing double. While they both knew they were adopted, they had no idea they had a biological sibling, let alone an identical twin! The similarities are only skin deep, though, because while Aviva has a big personality and even bigger Broadway plans, Holly is more the quiet dreamer type who longs to become a famous author like her grandfather. One thing the girls do have in common is their curiosity about how the other celebrates the holidays. What better way to discover the magic of the holidays than to experience them firsthand? The girls secretly trade lives, planning to stage a dramatic reveal to their families at the pageant. Two virtual strangers swapping homes, holidays, and age-old traditions—what could possibly go wrong?

Who Wrote It?

Marissa Meyer lives in Washington (stat), USA and mostly writes Young Adult Fantasy novels. In addition to loving books, Marissa's favorite (non-human) things are cookies and baths.

Joanne Levy lives in Ontario, Canada and mostly writes middle grade realistic fiction. When she isn't writing, Joanne enjoys making little creatures out of felt (cloth) and selling them on Etsy.

Marissa and Joanne co-wrote this book, meaning they wrote it together!
