

We're dedicated to reshaping Africa's narrative. Founded by a Liberian refugee turned culture journalist, we empower African storytellers, challenge stereotypes, and celebrate the continent's cultural richness through authentic storytelling and positive global impact.

SUPPORT

Reshaping Africa's narrative, one story at a time.

Our Vision

We are committed to empowering African voices and reshaping Africa's narrative globally.

Our Mission

By 2030, we strive to transform the narratives of 1,000 African storytellers, challenging stereotypes and illuminating the rich tapestry of Africa's history, culture, and innovation.

Why Connect with Us

- Be part of a mission-driven initiative
- Reshape the narrative of Africa
- Celebrate culture and diversity
- Inspire positive global change
- Amplify authentic voices

Our Pillars

EMBODYING 'the knaturalized narrative'

Empowering Africans to tell their authentic stories & sharing Kanree's story through speaking engagements, media & social outlets

THE PLATFORM

Sharing others' stories through a weekly conversation series featuring Liberian refugees who have transformed their narratives

THE COLLECTIVE

Building a community of African storytellers & creatives; connecting through experiential events

The Storytelling FUND

Supporting African storytellers through training and resources. Removing the financial barriers by FUNDing creative projects from conception, production and distribution

