MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hi Everyone!

The Kirkton Fair is pleased to welcome everyone back for another weekend of events, exhibits and entertainment. It is my honour to be president again this year. I hope we have better weather this year for our fair weekend!

The fair board has been working hard on planning another fun filled weekend. We will kickoff the weekend Friday evening with the firework show. Saturday morning, we will start off with the parade followed by all day entertainment and the tractor pulls beginning late afternoon. Stop by Sunday to grab breakfast and check out the classic car show and demolition derby in the afternoon.

We are so grateful to our many volunteers for playing a variety of roles and helping bring a successful fair to our community. This a truly a team event. New volunteers are always welcome!

Thank you to our many sponsors that have supported us over the years helping us bring the fair to life. I would also like to thank everyone that comes to the fair and supports our community.

I hope you have a wonderful weekend spending time with family and friends at the fair.

Random Andy by Kenn Nesbitt

Random Andy makes up things

by sticking words together.

Today he made a flowercow

and then a picklefeather.

He also made some candypants.

He made some airplanetrees.

He made some donutdragonflies

and bluebananabees.

He made a monkeytoothbrush

and a corncobcoffeecup.

If you made things like Random Andy,

what would you make up?

34. Grade 7 to 8 – A Festival for Frogs poem (written)

A Festival for Frogs by Kenn Nesbitt

We're at the Frog Fiesta.

It's a festival for frogs,
where the frogs are dancing happily
in cowboy boots and clogs.

They parade in wide sombreros
and in brightly colored shirts, or they swing and sway in circles
in their broad embroidered skirts.

They are bopping to the melodies
of famous froggy songs,
or they're croaking to the choruses
of froggy sing-alongs.

It's a hopping hootenanny
on a lovely summer's eve.

It's a dance that's so fantastic.

It's a bash you can't believe.

And it's on a night like this one,
near a bayou, on a bog,
that I sometimes make a little wish...
I wish to be a frog
