

ANNELISE KITCHING SHE/HER

SAG-E ACTOR | SINGER | VOICEOVER ARTIST

I'm a New York-based artist who believes every project deserves a pulse. Whether it's a commercial spot, a voiceover campaign, or a scripted role, I approach the work with grounded authenticity, playful whimsy, and a bit of mischief. I'm drawn toward gritty, raw, and real. Living in every NYC borough (sans Staten Island) has shaped how I see the world. The city is a kaleidoscope of voices, rhythms, and personalities, and that mosaic shows up in my work. I believe in the magic of the mundane. Let's collaborate on something special!
