Alexandra P. Saddik is an associate attorney at Sweeney Mason LLP with experience in construction, business, and employment matters. Her current practice primarily focuses on litigating construction contract disputes, mechanic's liens and stop payment notices, and construction defects. Prior to practicing law, Alexandra worked extensively with a testifying expert on matters pertaining to scheduling and productivity for large construction projects.

Alexandra graduated from Santa Clara University School of Law in 2019. She received a Bachelor's of Science in Commerce in Economics in 2015 and a Masters of Business Administration from Santa Clara University in 2018. She is still very active with the University as both an attorney mentor for Santa Clara Law's Broncos Entrepreneurs Advisory Clinic and an adjunct lecturer for the Entrepreneur's Law Clinic. Alexandra is also involved with local bar associations.

Alexandra lives in the Santa Cruz mountains and enjoys horseback riding, sword fighting, and spending time with friends and family.
