WATERFRONT INSPIRED DESIGN

Recognized as one of the top luxury interior designers in the Chesapeake region, Katie Rainey specializes in delivering interiors that are inspired, clean, and feel like a year-round vacation. She has a talent for partnering with professionals and families who seek solace in the water, offering a deep breath from their fast-paced personal and professional lives.

“This project was for a busy family of five,” says Katie. The original house was on a beautiful waterfront lot, but the entire space was dysfunctional, outdated, and dark. Her transformation injects vibrancy and light as well as much-needed space and flow. Most importantly, her family-driven designs will stand the test of time, ensuring her clients will enjoy their new home, inside and out, for years to come.
