

Personalized Charcuterie Boards:

Say Cheese for The Board Babes

Charcuterie boards take “cheese and crackers” to a whole new level. Curating an elaborate spread takes a creative eye and some serious shopping, but thankfully, there are a couple of gals here in South Florida who make custom boards that are pleasing to the eye and the palate.

After meeting in 2018, Morgan Karr began working for Iris’ Smeltz boutique catering company. COVID took a toll on events, so Iris and Morgan decided to join forces and go into business together as The Board Babes.

They’re just a couple of babes who love cheese, charcuterie, chocolate and wine. Now that small, intimate gatherings have replaced large catered events, they couldn’t think of a better way to help you treat yourself and the ones you love than with tasty, personalized charcuterie boards.

When the babes started this venture, their goal was to collaborate with other local businesses. “As female small business owners, it’s so important to come together and support each other in whatever way we can.” They source most of their products from purveyors in Palm Beach, Martin, and other surrounding counties.

The Board Babes are also active members of their community. They are heavily involved in the local children’s organization, Place of Hope, and support Aid to Victims of Domestic Abuse.

When Morgan and Iris aren’t building charcuterie boards, they both love spending time with their families and living the South Florida lifestyle. Both babes profess to be avid cheese eaters and have no shame in being self-proclaimed winos. It comes with the territory, right?

Visit them at TheBoardBabesFL.com or follow on @theboardbabesfl.

Written by Tiffany Chaplin

Photography provided by The Board Babes

The
BOARD BABES