General Rules

Contestants will check in at set times in the morning. They will be under supervision of Miss Teen Rodeo Wisconsin chaperones until they are checked out at the end of events. The chaperones will escort the contestants to and from all functions during those times.

Parents and supporters are welcome to attend all public events of the pageant, but may not have access to girls at certain events. (examples of events parents are not able to attend: All Interviews, Written Test, and Sponsor Visits)

A meeting of the parents, relatives, and friends will be scheduled on the first day of the pageant to explain the activities, rules, and answer any questions.

No gifts shall be given by any queen contestant to another queen contestant until all judging is over on Saturday afternoon.

Any complaints about the queen's contest, judges, other contestants, or anything relating to the pageant are to be referred in writing to the committee before the end of the pageant.

Judging will take precedence over all pageant activities. It will begin at the registration of the contestants and continue until coronation.

If there is only one contestant, the teen must score a 70% or higher overall to win the title and must score a 70% or higher in each category to win a category award.

After winning Miss Teen Rodeo Wisconsin, she may not compete in and/or otherwise participate in any other beauty contest, talent contest, pageant, and/or activity while holding the title of Miss Teen Rodeo Wisconsin.

MTRWI and contestants may not take any actions to cause harm to MTRWIPA.

Contestant Eligibility

Pageant Award Categories

Appearance

- Proper fit of clothing
- Poise and posture – lady-like behavior in every situation
- Proper western attire and adhering to the dress code for each event
- Neatness and cleanliness in every detail including hands, fingernails, hair, hat, boots and clothing
- Contestants must wear long sleeve western shirts, pants, cowboy boots, cowboy hat, contestant banners, and belt for all appearances. The only exception is during the fashion show when young ladies will wear an outfit of their choosing that shows their style and personality.
- Contestants will wear two outfits during the fashion show. One, they will wear for a speech and modeling, for example dresses, suits, dress pants, shirt or skirt and long sleeve blouses. The second will be a fun fashion forward outfit. Both outfits will be worn with belt, buckle, boots, contestant banner, and cowboy hat.
- There should be no halter or prom type dresses. It is not acceptable to wear midriff or low-cut clothing and skirt length should be no more than 3 inches above the knee.
- See horsemanship portion for dress code for horsemanship.
- Any contestant dressed for a Queen function in attire other than what is called for in that specific category, will be penalized 10 points from each judge.
- It is not necessary to invest in an excessive amount of expensive clothing. Judges will be looking for versatility and imagination displayed by the contestants.

Personality

Will be judged at every event except the written test and based on:

- Good common sense
- Maintain a good conversation in rodeo, agriculture, and other areas with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation
- Maturity, high moral standard, sincerity, integrity, self confidence without making an issue out of it
- Genuine interest in other people, the pageant, agriculture, and rodeo
- Promptness in keeping pageant schedule
- Self-projection - ability to project one's personality, whether it is from horseback in an arena or before an audience

Horsemanship

Each contestant will have one go-round to select a young lady who:

- Has control of mount in any situation which may occur
- Proper position of hands, feet, and seat while riding, mounting, and dismounting
- Horsemanship will be judged on the contestant's ability to ride and knowledge of the horse. Not judged on the horse's ability or equipment.
- The judges will select one of the three patterns on the day of horsemanship. Each lady will run the same set pattern. Contestants will ride their own horse. Contestants may also be required to mount, dismount, carry a flag, do a presentation ride, and/or perform additional maneuvers on horseback. Any changes to horsemanship patterns will be made by judges and announced to the contestants before the horsemanship competition begins.

Attire – plain off the rack long sleeved, button up, collared, white western shirt (you may alter it to fit your body, but no dying or embellishments may be added to the shirt), off the rack jeans (no dying or embellishments added), boots, belt, and cowboy hat. Any accessories may be used (necklaces, wild rags, earrings, ect.) No vests, jackets, spurs, or chaps are allowed. All riding attire should be neat and fit properly. Showmanship should be considered since a contestant's personality does project from horseback to the audience and judges.

Knowledge

Select the young lady who has the highest cumulative score in:

- Content of speech that relates to rodeo, western, or agriculture
- Knowledge of PRCA rodeo, sponsors, equine and current news discussed during the horsemanship interview
- Quality of answer to the two extemporaneous questions
- The young lady should understand rodeo, equine, animal welfare, agricultural topics, and current events.

Categories that can be brought up for the knowledge portion are listed below:

Written Test

- Each contestant will take a 100-point written test. The test can ask about PRCA events, equine and animal welfare, PRCA cowboys/cowgirls, and PRCA sponsors.

Photogenics

- Photogenic is from the photograph submitted with the application in addition to the photoshoot that is done on the first day with all contestants and current Miss Rodeo Wisconsin and Miss Teen Rodeo Wisconsin.

Judged Events

Speech

- Each girl will give a maximum of 3 ½ minute memorized speech
- Topics are anything rodeo, western, or agriculture related. This can be a personal story/experience related to the topics mentioned.
- Judges will be made aware of the contestant's speech time. This will be done during the Fashion Show in your speech/modeling outfit.

Interviews

Personality:

- Each contest will be interviewed by the judges, privately. The basis of this interview will be to get to know the ladies on an individual and personal level.
- The interview will be up to 15 minutes.

Attire - jeans or skirt, long sleeve button down collared shirt, vest, hat, boots, buckle, belt

Horsemanship:

- Each contestant will be interviewed by the judges, privately. The questions asked will test the ladies knowledge of the pageant, PRCA rodeo, horsemanship, and current affairs.
- The interview will be up to 15 minutes.
- Understanding of basic horsemanship, equine science, rodeo events, and animal welfare.

Attire - blue jeans or dress pants, long sleeved button down collared shirts, jacket or vest, boots, belt, buckle, hat

Extemporaneous Questions

- Two extemporaneous questions, personality based, will be asked of each contestant during the Fashion Show. The answers should be around 15-45 seconds long for each question.

Public Appearance

- There will be one event, coordinated by the St. Croix Valley PRCA Rodeo committee, in which the contestants will speak about the rodeo and pageant.
- Kid activities are done before each rodeo performance and contestants are expected to participate as a volunteer.
- Autograph Signing

Fashion Show

- Contestants will wear two outfits during the fashion show. One, they will wear for speech and modeling, for example dresses, suits, dress pants, shirt, skirt or long sleeve blouses.
- The second will be a fun fashion forward outfit. Both outfits will be worn with belt, buckle, boots, contestant banner, and cowboy hat. Be ready to dance in this outfit.
- There should be no halter or prom type dresses. It is not acceptable to wear midriff or low-cut clothing and skirt length should be no more than 3 inches above the knee.

Program Ad

- The 500-word maximum biography (written in 3rd person) submitted will be displayed in the program handed out during the rodeo performances.
- Will be judged on grammar and sincerity

Points

Judging – Judges will sign the score sheets in all categories, put them in a sealed envelope (furnished by the committee) and return to the committee immediately following each category. Awards will be handed out for each of the following categories: Appearance, Personality, Horsemanship, Knowledge, Written Test, Photogenics, and Congeniality. Points are distributed as follows:
