The Opportunity

This opportunity allows you to gain official travel industry status and become an independent travel agent on your own terms - while benefitting from partnering with an existing professional travel brand and community. Insider Travel Group partners with a multi award winning host agency, and our fast growing community of travel enthusiasts within the Insider Travel Group team have booked in excess of £1.7million of travel in 2025 (with over £170,000 being paid out to our agents).

You can use our travel booking platform to book for yourself, family, friends, your network or more - and earn between 6-18% commission on any travel bookings you make (with the average being 10%). You can book and earn as little or as much as you like from anywhere - no targets, minimums or maximums. You'll also have access to exclusive insider hotel rates - which are only available to those within the official travel industry. When you join us we'll share our knowledge on how we approach hotels, share our email templates for contacting hotels and more.

Insider Travel Group

When you join Insider Travel Group, you'll complete some online essential training through our host agency to gain your official, globally recognised travel industry credentials (IATA - worldwide travel industry identifier) and access to a travel industry booking system.

By becoming part of the travel industry through our team, you'll also have exclusive additional resources as a member of Insider Travel Group. We offer a ready made community to help you in whichever way you'd like to use the opportunity, optional Insider Travel Group branded resources, ready made social media templates and customisable quote and booking forms for your client travel.

We also share our proven methods to help you launch your travel business and travel like an insider.

Ways We Can Book

Commissionable Rate: This is the rate that you're currently booking right now, just without travel industry status. So at the moment you're actually giving away (on average) 10% of the value of your travel bookings to a hotel or a travel company. With this opportunity, you can book through our platform to enable you to be paid that commission instead. You can either book travel for yourself, others - or both - and keep the commission included in every booking you make. Think how quickly that pot of commission could add up.

Travel Industry Rate: As we are travel industry, hotels want us to experience their properties. They know that those in the travel industry have influence over how many rooms are sold (more than influencers!). For this reason, we are offered rates that can only be accessed by those within the travel industry. Travel industry rates can vary from 10-70% off. We provide you with the resources to be able to access these (for your own travel only) so that you can share that experience.

The Affiliate Opportunity

Affiliate commissions and residual income are very normal in today's world. With the travel entrepreneur membership you receive a personal affiliate link. With this you can choose to be financially rewarded from sharing the travel booking platform with others. There are so many people like you who will also hugely benefit from our travel platform, and it's quite often not a case of if someone will join our travel company, but when. Our host agency uses a network marketing model instead of traditional advertising, therefore the only route to entry is via referral.

While it's completely optional to use your affiliate link and earn in this way, more and more people are choosing to explore the marketing business due to the rapid expansion of our company globally, the generous compensation plan in place and the life changing impact of residual income (money that is continued to be paid to you every month as a result of something you did once). If this part of the opportunity intrigues or interests you - and you'd like to know more - reach out.
