ABOUT ANDREA

Andrea Jean, mom of 4, is a former Licensed Mental Health Professional turned full-time YouTube Growth Expert. After spending 10+ years helping women in the mental health field, she took a risk and started a 'Cleaning Hack' YouTube channel in hopes of achieving time and financial freedom.

In less than two years, Andrea grew to over 225,000 YouTube subscribers, >25M views and $200,000 of completely passive income.

This allowed her to quit her former 6-figure corporate job and create a second YouTube channel, 'YouTube How to Guide - Andrea Jean,' where she teaches others how to grow their audience and income faster with the Power of YouTube.

Andrea combines mindset strategies with step-by-step tools to grow your business beyond your wildest dreams - all while living to your highest potential. She wants you to wake up every single day saying "Heck Yes!" and "I can't believe I am getting paid to do what I absolutely love."
