FOUNDER

Kris Picard-Kerscher

FOUNDER + LEAD DESIGNER

Hi friend,

I founded Femme Collective Studio to empower womxn worldwide to build the businesses of their dreams.

Our goal is to provide you with strategic design and education so you leave having the confidence to take your business to another level.

Our clients come to us looking for much more than a stunning brand and website. They're looking for a strategy that converts, to end their stressful DIY cycle, to confidently raise their prices, to book out their services, and generally take the next step to propel their business forward.

MEET THE REST OF YOUR TEAM

We are a Team of passionate womxn dedicated to serving other womxn in business worldwide. Our job is to empower you to build your dream business & provide you with the design and marketing tools to do so with confidence. We're here to guide you through our stress-free luxury design experience.

TESTIMONIALS

KATHERINE

"It's been two years and I still receive compliments on my one-of-a-kind brand and website practically weekly. My conversion rate more than doubled and I credit that to your amazing studio. You ladies are incredible and I felt taken care of the entire time. Thank you for bringing my vision to life."

COURTNEY

"To say Femme Collective has completely changed my life is an understatement. Not only am I finally consistently booking my dream clients and confident when doing so, but I also walked away from our time together educated on why every strategic decision was made to speak to my audience."

KASSANDRA

"The best investment I have made in my business, period. I cannot even express how much you ladies have done for my life and my business. I have finally left my 9-5, I'm booking my dream clients, and at a price-point I never even dreamed of. Thank you thank you thank you."

IT IS OUR HONOR TO BRING YOUR VISION TO LIFE.

We are incredibly honored that you've trusted our Team to create a brand that expresses the heart of your business. For your brand is so much more than a beautiful logo, a carefully curated palette, or hand-sketched illustrations.

We dig deep to craft an identity, an experience, and an impression that will resonate with you and your audience.
