EMAIL TWO:

Trigger: One day after previous email

Subject line:You're seriously amazing [first_name]

Seriously, you are.

Do you know how many people say they will do this and that but never take action? Let's say, a lot.

But you are a go getter. I know that, because you have seen this opportunity, and jumped right on it. And that, makes you unstoppable.

I want to know more about your journey but first, allow me to make assumptions.

You are a spiritual person that is using LOA to achieve their best in their personal life and business. But things haven't been as magical as you hoped for.

You are visualising but somehow it doesn't feel right. You tried journaling but cannot commit to it. And then the balance, the balance of business and personal life is not there.

The truth is, there are no shortcuts to manifesting. But there are powerful methods that can skyrocket your experience making it remarkable. A tailored manifestation technique could be the powerful jump-start that you need.

But let's step back for a minute, to take a better view of your life.

Don't be shy, hit that reply button and let me know the following: Where you at in your life right now?

What do you want to change?

And, how will you feel if, one year down the line, you will be in the exact same spot as you are right now?

I will reply back, because yes, there's a real person behind these emails.

Sending positive energy,

Carly

EMAIL THREE:

Trigger: Two days after previous email

Subject line: I forgot to tell you this, [first_name]

Hey [first_name],

First - thank you for taking the time and replying to my email, or at least for thinking about those questions.

As I was reading some of the replies, I realised I forgot to tell you my story. I won't overwhelm you with loads of details but I can tell you that LOA has changed my life in unexpected ways.

I was aimless in my journey, both spiritual and business wise, but once I have discovered what works for me, I was on the path of making dazzling changes. Why only on the path you may be asking?

Because without action and implementation, the techniques that I downloaded during meditation were of no use to me.

I had to learn how to overcome my mindset, rebel against everything I knew until then, and trust the breathtaking methods that we new in my life. But it paid off.

I removed blocks that were holding me back from reaching financial freedom, I know how to keep myself grounded but also how to let go of negativity and attract what I desire.

Looking back at my old life, it feels so far away and it feels like watching a movie about a different person. And that's what I want for other business women that discovered spirituality. I want to guide them on their best path with a fail-proof method.

But I cannot make any suggestions, before I know where you are in your journey.

Hit the reply button again, and let's have a chat.

Sending positive energy,

Carly

EMAIL FOUR

Trigger: Two days after previous email

Subject line: I can help you, [first_name]

Hey [first_name],

Often, we don't seek help because we are strong and we can take it. I call that, setting yourself for failure. There's no doubt you are strong, but here's something you don't realise about strength. It goes hand in hand with wisdom. To be strong also means being wise enough to allow others to help you. Allow them to take some of that uncertainty away.

There was one journaling prompt that kick-started me into taking action every time. And that was the question: How will I feel if one year from now, I would be in the same life I am today?

Not worse but not better either. Stuck in the same loop of aimlessness and auto-pilot mode. And that scared me. I didn't want to waste another precious year.

I was ready to make brazen memories with my family, to reach new heights with my business and to set an example for my girls.

I went from a demoralising mindset that was setting me for failure to a ground-breaking yet hypnotic lifestyle.

I don't want you to worry about the steps you need to take, because I will walk along you and help you all the way. But I want YOU to know, what are you ready for?

Let your mind take you to the answers. Because all answers are already there.

Sending positive energy,

Carly
