THE TRUTH & RECONCILIATION COMMISSION OF CANADA (TRC)

The truth-telling and reconciliation process as part of an overall holistic and comprehensive response to the Indian Residential School legacy is a sincere indication and acknowledgement of the injustices and harms experienced by Aboriginal people and the need for continued healing. A profound commitment to establishing new relationships embedded in mutual recognition and respect that will forge a brighter future.

CALLS TO ACTION ACCOUNTABILITY: A 2020 STATUS UPDATE ON RECONCILIATION

The relationship between Indigenous peoples and Canadians has been characterized by old, paternalistic, and racist policies, and corresponding apathy and neglect. Yet, the resistance of Indigenous peoples continues to grow and there is an acceptance among Canadians that change is required. Yellowhead Institute works to governments accountable, advocating for the rights of Indigenous peoples, and developing models of change that support Indigenous futures.

NATIONAL INQUIRY INTO MISSING AND MURDERED INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND GIRLS

The National Inquiry's Final Report reveals that persistent and deliberate human and Indigenous rights violations and abuses are the root cause behind Canada's staggering rates of violence against Indigenous women, girls and 2SLGBTQQIA people. The two volume report calls for transformative legal and social changes to resolve the crisis that has devastated Indigenous communities across the country.
