

WE ARE...

THE Hopeful THEATRE PROJECT

...And We Are On A Mission.

A mission of hope, love,
and joy. To take the passions of DFW performers and make a difference in the community
they love.

WE ARE GIVING
Passion a Purpose

Who We Are

Mission Statement

The Hopeful Theatre Project's goal is to bring love, hope, and aid to the community by utilizing local talent through the performing arts to benefit various charity organizations.

Brief History

The Hopeful Theatre Project began as a dream in the fall of 2018. We opened our first production, Two Acts of Love, February 16, 2019 to benefit The Ronald McDonald House of Fort Worth. We were so amazed by the amount of support that we had to continue making this dream a reality.

The Hopeful Theatre Project is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization founded in the state of Texas founded on April 11, 2019.

We are a little different than most non-profit theatres in Texas - each show we produce we do with one goal in mind: to raise funds for a local charity or a local chapter of a national charity.

As a company, we are looking forward to expanding on big dreams and making a difference in the community we love!

EQUITY STATEMENT

The Hopeful Theatre Project seeks diverse team members and performers, including but not limited to: ethnicity, race, color, country of origin, sex, gender, sexual orientation, body size, marital status, adults of all ages, religion, beliefs, political affiliations socio-economic status, experiences, and any form of disability.

FUN FACT!

We are a female founded and led non-profit organization!

What We've Done

In the first two years, The Hopeful Theatre Project raised over $25,000 for our beneficiaries, which include Ronald McDonald House of Fort Worth, Make-A-Wish Foundation of North Texas, The Salvation Army, The Actors Fund, The American Red Cross, Operation Christmas Child, National Alliance on Mental Illness, and the Wildlife Conservation Network.

In addition to performing, we also do many community outreach events! Our team members, performers, and volunteers have had opportunities to give back in various ways. As a company, we have volunteered at Tarrant Area Food Bank, hosted many needs drives, gathered toys for children, baked for nursing homes, and hosted park clean-ups!

Annual Valentine's Day Production

After the success of our first production, The Ronald McDonald House of Fort Worth asked if we could partner with them annually to raise love for their mission. RMHFW's mission is to offer a supportive, home-like community that eases burdens for seriously ill children and their families. We immediately said yes and look forward to kicking off every one of our seasons with a Valentine's Day Production to benefit them!

"The Hopeful Theatre Project partnered with the Ronald McDonald House of Fort Worth in the beginning and we are grateful they selected us as one of the missions they support. Our home is filled with more than help, it is filled with hope and The Hopeful Theatre Project has helped make that possible over the years through their generous support. This group of amazing and talented performers have such a passion for theatre and giving back to the community... it shows in everything they do."

Where We're Going

01. With Our Beneficiaries

Here at The Hopeful Theatre Project, we have big dreams! Our biggest dream is to raise $50,000 for those in need through our productions in our first 5 years. As of our 3rd birthday, we were already over 1/3 of the way to our goal!

02. With Our Productions

For the first couple of years, we have put on themed musical revues that we match with a beneficiary for our productions. But as we continue to grow, we are moving towards fully scripted musical productions. We are hoping to pick family-friendly stories that will inspire not only our audiences, but our beneficiaries, as well!

03. With Our Company

The Hopeful Theatre Project would love to find a home. We are currently a non-profit who rents various venues for our productions and events, but would love to find a place where we can grow together, expand our reach, and focus on our impact. We are a family and we are ready for a home.

“Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. once said, 'Life's most persistent and urgent question is, what are you doing for others?' Creating art with awe-inspiring people to benefit worthy organizations that make the world a better place is what I am doing, and The Hopeful Theatre Project is the company that makes it possible.”
