

Workshop and Event Policies

SkyView Market agrees to offer hands-on workshops and on-farm events in exchange for payment by the guest according to the following terms and conditions:

Safety: Culinary, art, horticulture and wellness workshops at SkyView Market are hands-on and guests are required to use various utensils and equipment. We are committed, at all times, to safety and health. Guests are supervised at all times, and participation at times involves using knives and other sharp utensils. Guests will be working with, and in, close proximity to kitchen equipment, including but not limited to, hot surfaces and therefore SkyView Market cannot guarantee an injury-free or risk-free environment. Workshops may also involve the handling of raw food items, including meat. Safe sanitary practices will be reviewed with the guests. Workshops may use ingredients that contain or come into contact with common allergens, such as dairy, eggs, wheat, nuts, soy, and food coloring. SkyView Market will not be held responsible for any allergic reactions or health issues related to class activities or the ingredients used. By enrolling in SkyView Farms workshops or by attending events, guests hereby release and covenant not to sue SkyView Market, its owners, members, agents, employees, representatives and assigns, from any and all liability for injuries and/or damages, regardless of cause or fault, incurred in connection with or arising out of attendance or participation in a SkyView Market workshop or event.

Scheduling: SkyView Market reserves the right to cancel workshops and provide a full refund when class minimum registration numbers are not met.

Payment and Cancellations: Workshop fees are non-refundable unless the class is cancelled. Special planning and careful preparation goes into making your workshop experience an exceptional one.

Medical Consent: By enrolling in our classes and attending events, the guest gives permission for medical treatment to be administered by a qualified medical professional in the event of an emergency. The signer authorizes SkyView Market to act on behalf of, and in the best interest of, the guest.

Guest Responsibilities: Guests are expected to show respect for others and abide by all workshop and event rules and guidelines. SkyView Market reserves the right to decline a guest's return if their behavior is deemed inappropriate.
