REDUCING YOUR STRESS

Well hey there! Congratulations on getting married - what a wonderful and exciting time in your life. It can be stressful - trust me, I've been there - but good news! I'm here to help you make things as smooth and easy as possible, so you can focus on what matters most: your love story. Reducing stress means reducing the amount of work and pressured decisions you have to make in a small period of time, which is why I've created this guide. It's a very curated referral list of sorts, recommending services ranging from hair and makeup to cake bakers, that I am proud to hand to my clients. I do not receive any commissions for my referrals; just a deep satisfaction in knowing my clients will be taken care of.

Over the many years of being a wedding photographer, I've come to work with a lot of other wedding vendors. I've seen firsthand when a vendor is fantastic...and, well, when they're not so great too. I've gotten to be quite discerning about whose services I recommend to my brides, only choosing vendors who share my commitment to excellence, aesthetic tastes and values. This ensures they also align with my clients. My guide is a handful of carefully selected vendors whose services I have experienced firsthand - some over the course of years. I can say with confidence, putting my own reputation on the line, that the vendors listed below will do a fantastic job of making your wedding the most memorable day of your life.

CONSIDER ME A PLANNING RESOURCE

I'M HERE TO HELP!

Communicating with my clients is a huge part of what I love so much about my job. I love discussing new ideas, discovering new vendors, helping planning the details (and I mean ALL details - geeking out on colors, napkins, bouquets - you name it!). This is what I do best, so please consider me a planning resource!

Additionally, I'm completely committed to helping make your wedding experience low-stress from start to finish. I encourage you to ask questions, give ideas, and play a hands-on role in the planning process. I am always available for you. The following is a list of ways to get ahold of me. So excited! Let's do this!
