A LOVE NOTE

Here's to you, Goddess.

I am so thrilled that you are here seeking to take this bold and beautiful step towards seeking a deeper connection with yourself. Boudoir, or Intimate Portraiture, is a deeply personal experience, and whether you experience it independently, as part of your motherhood journey, or with the one you love, my mission is to ensure a comfortable and safe experience of self-expression.

When you have a boudoir session, you are diving into yourself, into the most raw, vulnerable and untapped parts, and bringing them outward to a place of confidence and self-love.

Every woman has a story.

YOUR STORY DESERVES TO BE TOLD.

Embracing your story is of the utmost importance to me, and I seek to ensure the highest level of confidence in you. I will both nurture and protect your heart as you tell your story through my lens.

When you are with me for intimate portraiture, I want you to feel as beautiful and powerful as you are. Think about your session as a place where you will harness your strength as a woman and foster it in an artful display of confidence and sophistication.

When you leave your session, I want you to feel simultaneously empowered and elegant, sensual and self-loved, classy and sexy. My goal is to guide you into a deep self-expression and capture the most intimate and beautiful parts of yourself.

I can't wait to be a part of this experience with you.

Always with love,

Chrissy

M E E T C H R I S S Y

I'm Chrissy - the owner & photographer of Chrissy Marie Photo Co. I am so thrilled to be here and to have this opportunity get to know you on such a deep, personal level. I thought I'd take a moment to share a little about me, to help you get to know who you will be sharing this experience with.

I started to truly learn the value of capturing a woman's strength when I became pregnant with my son. I loved my body before he became a part of it, and then even more as he began to grow inside of me. The connection I felt to both my child and myself was truly a divine experience unlike anything I had ever experienced before. Now, as I reclaim my post-child body and embrace my own journey of rediscovering myself and my strength, I am continuing my own journey into self-exploration and love. My greatest wish is to bring others the understanding of the fine art that our bodies truly are, through every stage of our lives.

I adore every person who comes to me seeking to find and share their own beauty. Whether you are in a stage of self-love because you are feeling your most truly glamorous or seeking to reclaim your body in a new phase of your life, I hope that my own experience within my body resonates with you.

I can't wait to reflect your own divinity back to you.

Studio Sessions

Ensuring the Best Experience

This Investment Guide is entirely focused on sessions that take place in my private home studio. I created this safe, elevated space to ensure the most secure and connected experience for my clients. Each session is treated as a completely personal experience, as is the post-session and editing process.

Studio sessions are naturally slow-paced and intimate. They involve planning, discussion before, during, and after, stopping to recalibrate if needed, and almost all packages include hair and makeup as well so you feel like the true goddess you are. After the session, you are heavily involved in choosing the photos that you love most, and that best represent you in the most beautiful and artistic way.

Editing involves color grading consistent with my style of photography, black and white photos, and detailed retouching. I love embracing your most sacred self, while focusing on the parts of you that you love the most. While I do not include heavy body modifications that alter your natural being, my editing process is extremely intricate, and your images will result in the most flattering, ethereal version of you.

With every session, I will include both full-body images as well as detail-oriented heavily cropped images. I am always mindful that should you wish to share any of your photos on any platform, you will have social-media safe images to choose from during your Gallery Reveal. Read more about your Gallery Reveal on in What to Expect.

The Aphrodite Approach

Embracing your Inner Goddess

As you read through this guide and this experience, you will notice a theme threaded throughout your experience, centered around the goddess Aphrodite and finding the connection in yourself to your own inner Goddess.

Aphrodite was the goddess of love, beauty, motherhood. Born from the sea, she is represented throughout greek mythology through symbols such as water, seashells, flowers, birds, pearls, and other representations of grace, transformation, elegance and divinity.

Throughout this process, I encourage you to find what part of your inner goddess speaks to you and shines throughout our time together. I believe as women, we hold so much capability and resilience. We are so resilient and strong, and at the same time, loving, gentle and passionate. We are multi-faceted, and we have so much to give and share.

I can't wait for you to harness your fabulous feminine energy and share all of the pieces that make up your inner goddess throughout this experience.

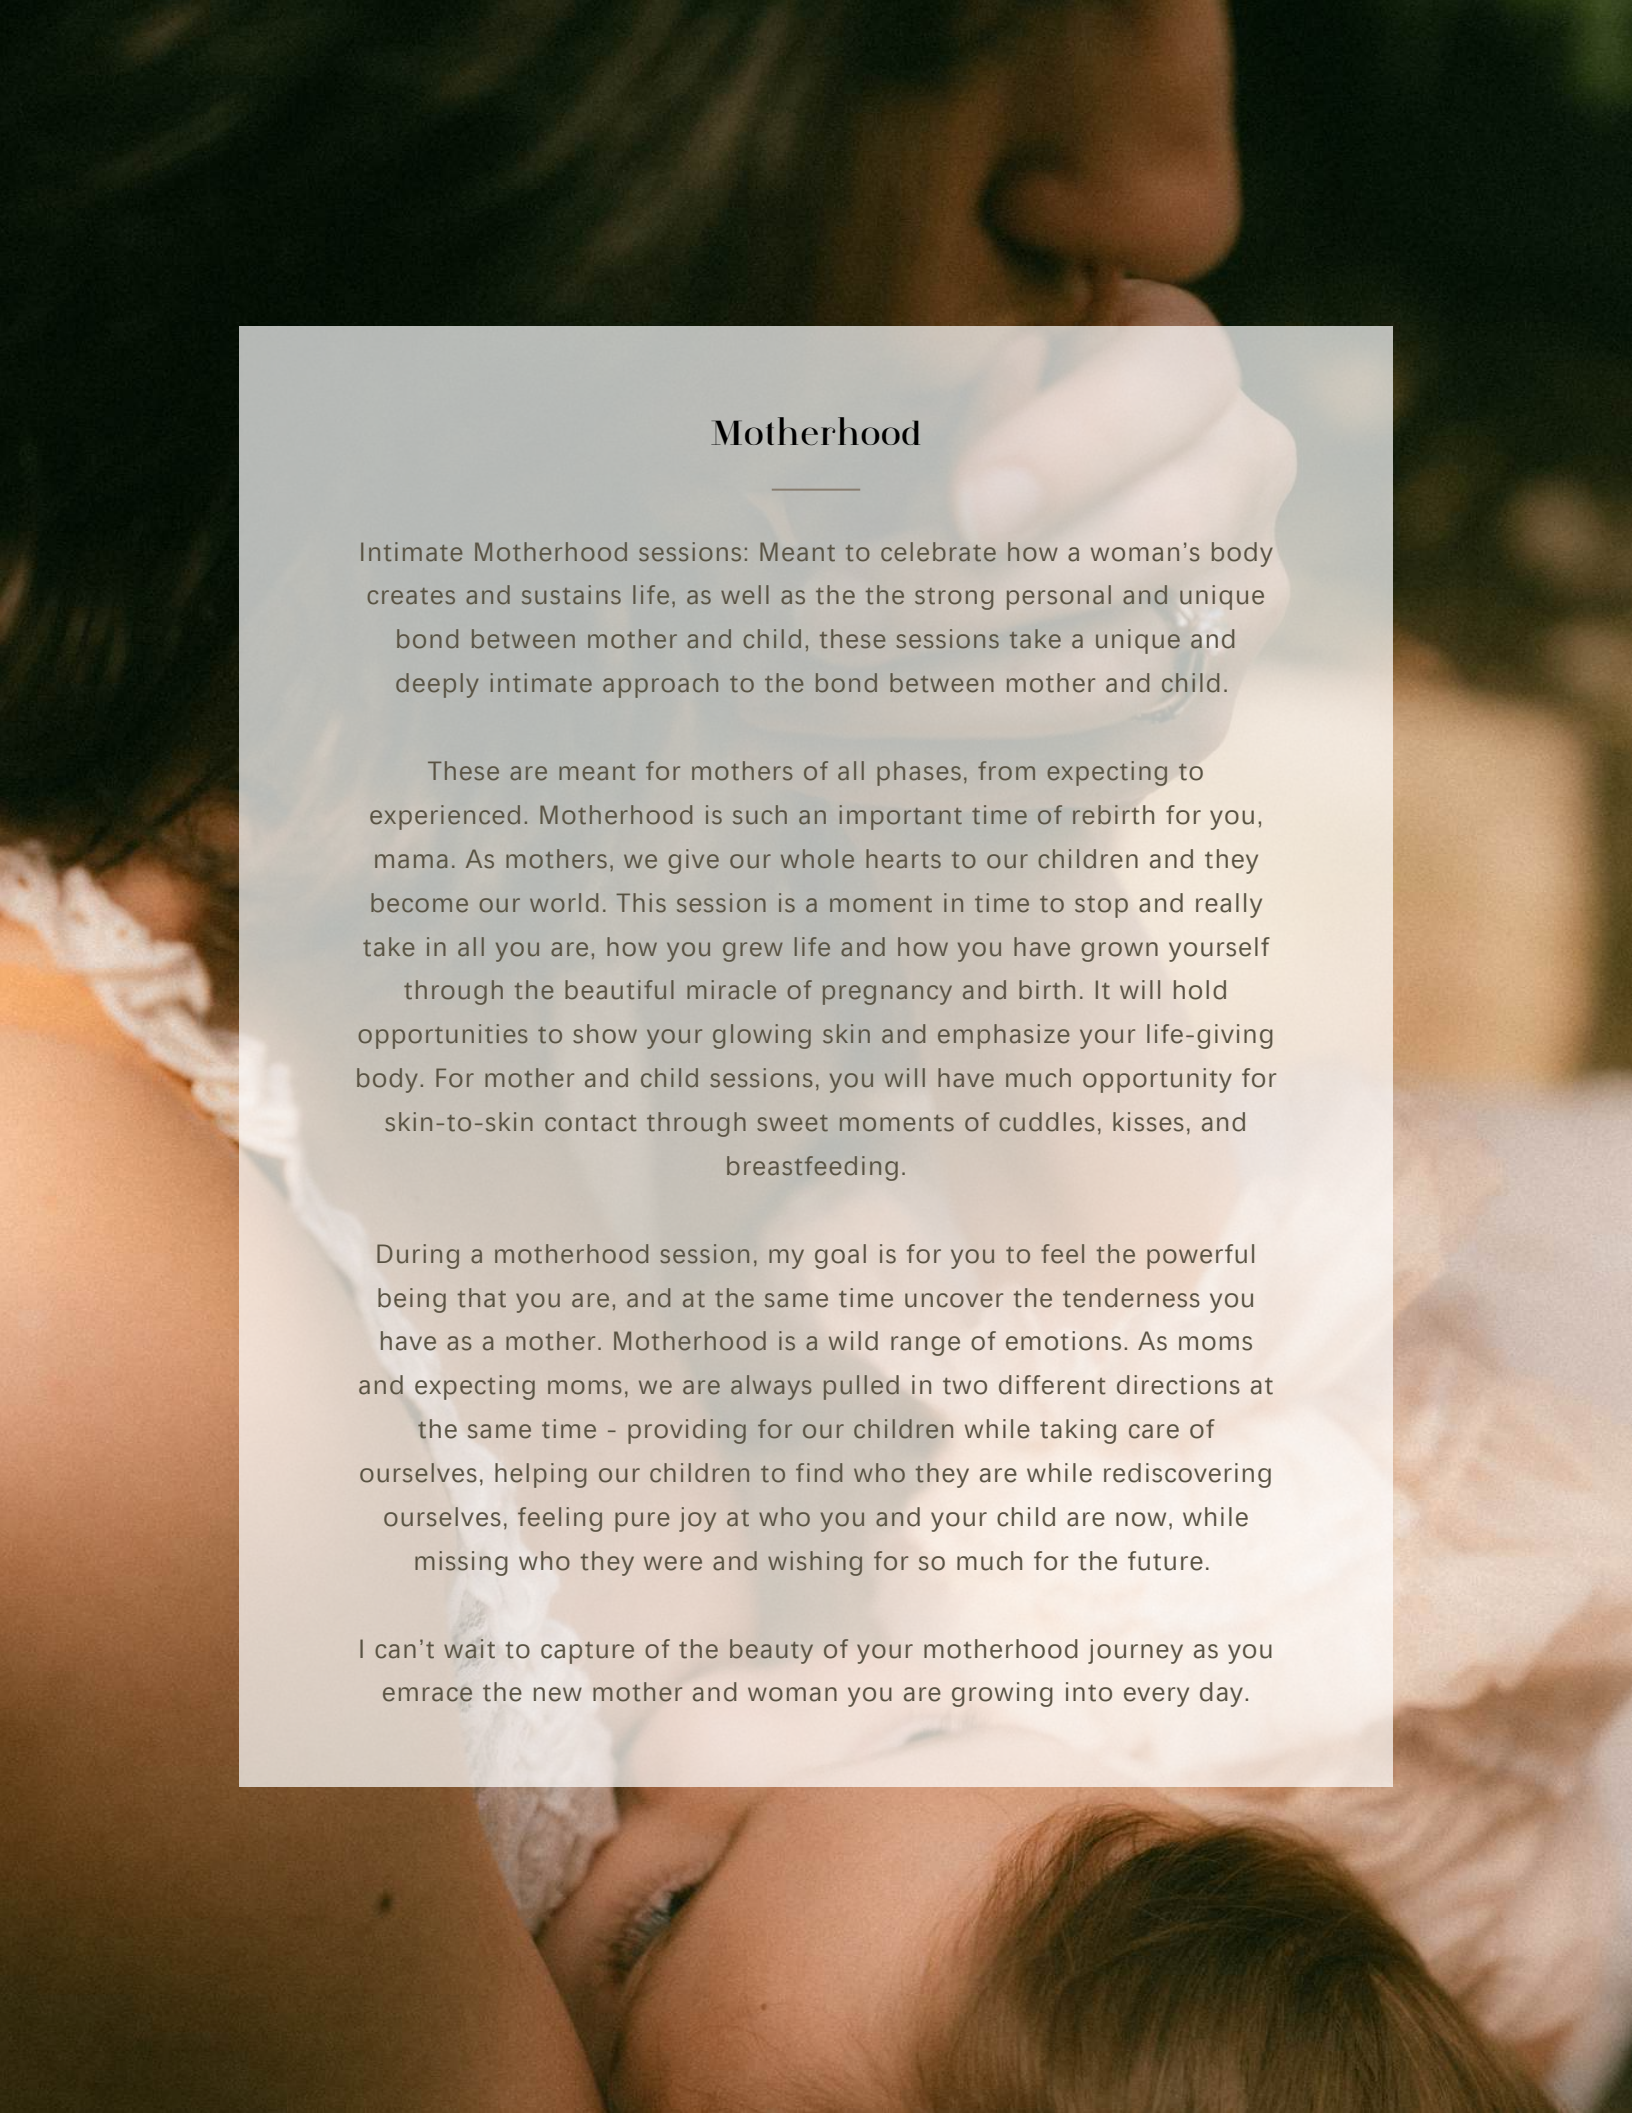

Intimate Portraiture

What is Intimate Portraiture, and how does it fit with Boudoir?

Intimate Portraiture can best be described by the approach to how you are embraced for exactly who you are, in the time of life that you are in. Intimate Portraiture is exactly that - portraits that take an intimate, artful, perspective rather than overt and objectifying. It is the delicate art of noticing - of finding details that elevate your photos in a way that maintains sexiness and sensuality while incorporating class and sophistication - photos you can take pride in when you see the woman, the goddess, looking back at you.

Throughout our entire time together, from first contact to final art delivery, we work together to empower you, putting you at the center of every moment, every movement and conversation, considering your emotions, vulnerability, your strengths, and the way you want most to express yourself.

Motherhood

Intimate Motherhood sessions: Meant to celebrate how a woman's body creates and sustains life, as well as the the strong personal and unique bond between mother and child, these sessions take a unique and deeply intimate approach to the bond between mother and child.

These are meant for mothers of all phases, from expecting to experienced. Motherhood is such an important time of rebirth for you, mama. As mothers, we give our whole hearts to our children and they become our world. This session is a moment in time to stop and really take in all you are, how you grew life and how you have grown yourself through the beautiful miracle of pregnancy and birth. It will hold opportunities to show your glowing skin and emphasize your life-giving body. For mother and child sessions, you will have much opportunity for skin-to-skin contact through sweet moments of cuddles, kisses, and breastfeeding.

During a motherhood session, my goal is for you to feel the powerful being that you are, and at the same time uncover the tenderness you have as a mother. Motherhood is a wild range of emotions. As moms and expecting moms, we are always pulled in two different directions at the same time - providing for our children while taking care of ourselves, helping our children to find who they are while rediscovering ourselves, feeling pure joy at who you and your child are now, while missing who they were and wishing for so much for the future.

I can't wait to capture of the beauty of your motherhood journey as you embrace the new mother and woman you are growing into every day.

Couples

Sharing a boudoir experience with your love is an incredible way to deepen your connection. Bringing your relationship to a place of true expression, bringing romance and passion to your images in a way that document your love as it is now. Savor these moments together and bask in the adoration you have for each other.

In an intimate boudoir session, you will share touching moments of playfulness, sensuality, and suggestion. We will create stunning imagery through small acts of love and tenderness. A couples session emphasizes connection with each other the way an intimate portraiture session emphasizes connection with self - looking inward to find the parts of yourselves and each other that you love the most, and capturing that in your photos.

Whether it's a gentle embrace, the touch of your hands, adoring each other from across the room or passionate kisses, your session will reflect exactly who you are together. Breathe new life into your relationship through your expression of love.

WHAT TO EXPECT

This is YOUR journey, and I want to make this as truly a personal and memorable experience for you as possible. Ensuring that you love the process as much as the photos is so important to me.

The process for your experience is described below. We work together through every aspect, ensuring that you feel your most beautiful and flawless every step of the way.

01. INTRODUCTION

Upon your inquiry, I will contact you to set up a time for our first introduction! This will be just a brief call to introduce ourselves, and to ensure that I am a good fit for you. I will review my process and package options with you, and I will get to know your vision.

03. YOUR SESSION

As your session approaches, we will confirm all of the details around your wardrobe selections, expectations, and inspiration. On the day of your session, if your package includes it, you will arrive approximate one hour before your session time for your professional hair and makeup. We can enjoy some champagne or tea to celebrate or bring you calm. Then, the rest of the time is all about your fabulous self!

02. CONTRACT & QUESTIONNAIRE

Following our call and review of my guide, I create a personalized package for you. Upon confirmation from you, I will send your contract and Boudoir Questionnaire for completion. Once contract and retainer are received, you are booked! Then keep an eye on your mailbox for a special welcome surprise!

04. YOUR GALLERY

I will have your first-round light edits ready within about a week from your session date, at which time we will set up a time for you to sit down together for your Gallery Reveal! Your Reveal is where you will select the photos you would like, consistent with your selected package. Should you choose to add photos to your package you may! Following the reveal, your final edits will be sent to you via your gallery and any printing options you choose in the time frame consistent with your package.

Q & A

Q: WHAT MAKES YOUR BOUDOIR PHOTOGRAPHY DIFFERENT FROM TRADITIONAL BOUDOIR?

A: My boudoir photography will be entirely centered around each woman as a personal inward journey of self-expression. My goal is to empower women to rediscover their confidence and strength. I will involve you every step of the way to ensure you feel comfortable and safe. This experience is all about you, where together we discover new ways for you to find love in yourself. Traditional boudoir has a heavy focus on overt sexuality, and while your sexuality will be a part of this process, the focus is much greater, expressed through intimate portraiture in an artful, classy yet powerful way.

Q: WHAT ABOUT MY BODY? HOW DO I CHOOSE THE RIGHT OUTFITS?

A: With a heavy emphasis on self-expression and true, raw, authentic reflection, I strongly suggest taking the time to think about and discuss with me what you want to take away from this session. I will walk you through all of the ways to reflect about and represent your body. You will receive a Welcome Guide with wardrobe suggestions for different body types, and I will help you choose clothing items that feel flattering to you. In-session, we will work to find ways to express the best parts of yourself. Editing is a long process and ensures that I am bringing out the best in you.

Q: WHAT IF I WANT TO ALTER MY PACKAGE?

A: This is completely understandable! My packages are based built on most common requests, however, but all packages are customizable and can suited to your specific desires!

Q: WILL MY PHOTOS BE POSTED ON YOUR SOCIAL MEDIA?

A: I may use your photos for business purposes, including but not limited to social media, marketing materials and publications, website, etc. You will be given the choice in your Boudoir Questionnaire after finalizing your booking of several options for my ability to use your photos, ranging from full access, to choosing certain images, to not at all. Your privacy and safety is the most important part of this process to me and I will always respect your wishes.

Q: HOW DO PAYMENTS WORK?

A: Upon booking, you will choose a package that you anticipate will be the best fit for you. A $350 retainer will be due to finalize your booking, and then we will create a customized payment plan for you! I also understand that it may be tough to decide exactly what you love before seeing your images, so you may add anything into your package at any time throughout this process, up through your Gallery Reveal!

A woman with long, light-colored hair is sitting on a bed, looking towards the camera. She is wearing a white, long-sleeved top. The room has a window with white curtains and a small vase of flowers on the windowsill. A plant with green leaves and small flowers is hanging from the ceiling. The overall atmosphere is soft and intimate.
