

Al Fresco Attitude

Thanks to the South's moderate temperatures, outdoor entertaining is prime no matter the season. EVAN MILLÁRD, LAUREN MOORE and BETSY TRABUE have us daydreaming of summer soirées with their lush weather-resistant seating area (right), while RANDY KORANDO and DAN BELMAN of BOXWOODS GARDENS & GIFTS transformed a greenhouse into an entertainer's oasis (far right).

Floral Fancy

An extravagant floral arrangement—whether standing alone or surrounded by a fully dressed table setting—brings life to any space. To echo this dining room's watercolor-inspired wallpaper, WILL HUFF of HUFF-DEWBERRY, INC. topped the table with a towering bouquet of purple hydrangea.

HUFF BY JEFF HERR; BROWN BY EMILY FOLLOWELL

Color Code

Glassware, linen napkins and other accessories can add a subtle, yet playful pop of color to any tabletop design. Designer LIZ WILLIAMS complemented a breakfast room's palette with green crystal goblets, lime-toned lamps with blue ombre pleated shades and oranges displayed in a rattan basket for an extra punch of color.

WILLIAMS AND MILLÁRD, MOORE AND TRABUE BY JEFF HERR; BOXWOODS BY ERICA GEORGE DINES

Mix & Mingle

To match the wallcovering's visual interest, ROBERT BROWN alternated two different styles of sculptural vintage chairs in a dining room—a set of circa-1960s Stewart MacDougall Klismos chairs and a set of '70s-era Karl Springer chairs.

