What's It About?

The first book in the #1 New York Times bestselling Wings of Fire series

Clay has lived his whole life under the mountain. The MudWing dragonet knows that war is raging between the dragon tribes in the world outside -- a war that he and four other dragonets are destined to end, according to the mysterious Prophecy they've been taught. The five "chosen" dragonets were stolen from their homes while they were still in their eggs and hidden away ever since -- all to fulfill the Prophecy. But not every dragonet wants a destiny. And when danger threatens one of their own, Clay and his friends must choose freedom over fate...leave the mountain...and set the dragon world on a course that no one could have predicted.

Who Wrote It?

Tui T. Sutherland is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of the wildly popular Wings of Fire dragon fantasy series, which has sold tens of millions of copies worldwide and captivated readers across the globe. Born in Caracas, Venezuela, she spent her childhood moving between countries—including Paraguay, the Dominican Republic, and the United States—before settling in New Jersey as a teenager. Sutherland graduated from Williams College with a degree in English literature and began her career as a children's book editor before becoming a full-time author. She has written more than 60 books for young readers, ranging from easy-to-read titles to middle grade and young adult novels, sometimes using pen names. Today she lives near Boston with her husband, their two children, and a fluffy dog, where she continues creating imaginative worlds filled with adventure, humor, and unforgettable characters.
