03. PLANNING STAGE

During the planning stage, we work together to bring your dream into reality. We'll collaborate through a private mood board on Pinterest where we can share inspiring images that help hone your look. We'll cover hair, makeup, and styling, and I'll share images of the gorgeous maternity gowns available for your shoot.

04. PRE-SHOOT CALL

48 hours before your photoshoot, we'll have one last call to go over details and what to expect. We'll review any items that must be brought with you, and confirm arrival times. Any necessary adjustments due to weather may be made at this time.
