The Love
CLASSICS

Research wedding vows and read through traditional wedding readings, love poetry, scripture, and literature about love and marriage. Anything catch your eye? Jot it below!

Your Love
STORY

Reflect on your relationship. Consider the questions listed, or use the space below to write out your love story.

- What do you love about your future spouse?
- When did you know you wanted to marry them?
- What does marriage mean to you?
- How has your relationship challenged you?

- What hopes do you have for your marriage?
- What is your favorite memory with your partner?
- What are you most excited for about marriage?
- How was your relationship helped you grow?

Making Your PROMISES

Come up with some ideas for promises you'd like to make in your vows.

My tip: Remember that these vows are promises you're making to one another for the rest of your lives! Consider airing on the side of timeless while finding ways to be personal, and try to avoid using words such as always, never, or making promises you can't keep.
