CLIENT EXIT SURVEYS

Q: What challenge were you facing when you were referred to SAS? How did that make you feel?

"Clutter and a sterile house."

"So much stuff and no idea where to store it. It was very stressful. I didn't know where to put anything or how to organize it. I wasn't fully unpacked yet from moving and everything was a massive mess."

Q: How would you describe your experience with SAS?

"I felt honored and loved. I am excited to sit in my new space and enjoy :-)."

"It was amazing! They gave me so much help, were very encouraging, and did even more than I had imagined . . . They went above and beyond expectations. My children were so happy and have been more active in keeping things clean around the house. It's easier to find items with the labels and bins. I love it."

Q: How do you feel now that SAS has helped you declutter and organize?

"Much better. I am excited to have family come over and see my wonderful space."

"I feel so much more relief. It feels like home. It's easier when friends come to visit, I don't have to spend all day cleaning first. I have better vision for how I want to arrange furniture and things in the future. I am happy to have a clean home again."

Q: Is your life different after SAS services? If so, how?

"Yes, my home now feels warm. I feel relaxed and comfortable. I feel like I can breathe. Thank you."

"Yes it helped me learn how to better organize things and not dread cleaning so much."

OUR AGENCY PARTNERS

Social services agency partners refer our projects.

How does the Sponsor A Space process begin? It all starts with a Colorado Springs social services agency partner who identifies a community member who need our help the most. Our team then meets with the application candidate, and outlines the project in a Discovery Session. Projects are then funded by neighbors like you who make the organizing sessions possible.

PROJECT TESTIMONIAL

Hear how these projects are giving support to our local neighbors in a way that wasn't possible until now.

"I was in such agony and distress all the time about trying to figure out where to start . . .

[Sponsor A Space] coming in, helping, and bringing in bins and things to help me organize - that was a huge deal!

It just gave me a lot of peace.

I can feel good about my home.

I can feel good when friends come over. They come over and bring their kids. And their kids destroy the house . . .

But there's order!

And we know where things go!

So it's easy to put things back into their place now!"

Meghan believes in the potential of others. Her natural passion for reimagining spaces lead her to help people improve their lives through peaceful, organized environments.

She brings 11 years of experience in social services, with the most notable position being her role at the Department of Human Services (DHS). During that time, she developed a life skills teaching program, built community partnerships, and helped hundreds of community members to greater self-sufficiency. She has a Bachelors of Psychology and Masters in Social Work (MSW).

In 2019, she founded Joyful Spaces, a home organizing business. This career pivot allowed her to embark on her foster care journey, and she quickly realized that this practical support was very similar to her social services experience.

Sponsor A Space is the culmination of Meghan's love of giving, her support of communities, and desire to equip people with tools to develop their own peace and productivity in their daily lives.

Sponsor A Space is a Colorado 501(c)(3) nonprofit.
