But if you're on the fence, here are some of the most common questions we've answered:

1. I don't have a ton of followers. Can I successfully create and sell an online course?

You don't need to have a huge online audience, a full suite of fancy production gear, or even years of marketing expertise to create a profitable course.

Depending on your price point and the value of your content, just a few students are all you need to earn real money. For example, if you enroll five students when you launch a $500 course, you could earn $2,500.

2. What if I've never recorded or edited videos?

You don't need to be a video or production whiz to create impactful online courses. What matters most to your students is your knowledge. As long as you're teaching something valuable, they'll be excited to learn from you. If anything, a more DIY approach to filming can help your students relate to you more.

3. Shouldn't I wait to join Teachable until after I've created all my course content?

Right when you join, our online training program, teachable:u, gives you unlimited access to expert insight and training videos. You'll find everything you need to outline and develop your course and market and sell it. You'll also get access to our exclusive community full of other Teachable creators, plus help from our award-winning customer support team.

4. I'm not sure my topic could be turned into an in-demand course. What kinds of subjects are typically successful?

Successful courses built using Teachable span thousands of topics, including: watercolor painting, parenting, drone flying, woodworking, hand lettering, tennis coaching, dog training, guitar playing, languages, programming, traveling to Europe, gardening, blacksmithing, calligraphy, business...and thousands more.

Everyone has unique expertise and valuable knowledge that they can share with the world—and that includes you.

5. What's the refund policy?

We have a 30-day satisfaction guarantee. If we aren't the right fit for you, you'll be able to request a refund within 30 days of your purchase date.
