

Family Dinner Questions

Moving clockwise, starting with the youngest, take turns choosing either a know question or a love question (or answer both!) based on the person's personality animal.

To find out your personality, go to knowandlove.com and take the free quiz!

To know them = the chooser answers.

To love them = everyone else answers.

To know them: The goal(s) I am trying to accomplish this year are...

To love them: If I was a superhero, what would my name and super power be?

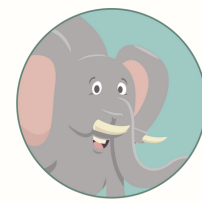

To know them: If I could trade lives with any celebrity for one weekend, I would choose...

To love them: What's one thing you really want me to experience and why?

To know them: What is my favorite activity to do with other people?

To love them: What are my greatest strengths?

To know them: What 3 things make family holidays, parties or gatherings the best?

To love them: What's one thing you love about me?

To know them: What is something I want to be better at?

To love them: What jobs do you think I would be good at and why?

To know them: What topic do I love talking about the most? Why?

To love them: What do you think makes me the happiest?

To know them: What activity makes me lose track of time?

To love them: What hobby or activity should I learn that will help develop my creativity?

To know them: What is my ideal day? (From morning to night.)

To love them: What's your earliest memory of me?