

WHO WE ARE

We envision a world without loneliness. Our mission is to inspire intentional, meaningful connection.

WHY LONELINESS?

Loneliness is perceived social isolation or the subjective feeling of being alone. Said another way, it is the inability to connect in meaningful ways that give us a sense of significance and belonging. Loneliness is significantly harmful to both physical and mental health. We have seen firsthand the devastating effects of loneliness. So we are on a mission to end it.

“LONELINESS IS ONE OF THE GREATEST HEALTH CONCERNS PEOPLE FACE.”

— HARVARD HEALTH

ADVOCACY & AWARENESS

Through community events, business partnerships, media production, materials and products, speaking engagements, and other various campaigns and activities, we advocate for change by raising awareness of loneliness and the importance of intentional connection.

THE CONNECTION CURRICULUM

The Connection Curriculum is a school and youth program that inspires intentional connection and encourages those that feel lonely. We equip teachers to create an environment where meaningful conversations take place and students learn skills to address loneliness and connect with others.

THE AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

The Ambassador Program equips those who are passionate about starting conversations that matter by reminding them to intentionally connect with their people and inspire & activate their communities.

THE "I KNOW LONELY" PROJECT

By sharing stories, we remind people that they are not alone in the experiences they face and provide opportunities for connection. The "I Know Lonely" project shares personal stories of loneliness and connection through visual, audio and written content. Discussion questions, activities and resources will be curated for school/youth, adults, and families!

#Only7Seconds

"After experiencing a brain injury at 14, I experienced first hand what it felt like to be alone, feel hopeless and isolated. Nine months into my injury moments before I attempted suicide, one of my friends texted me. It changed everything for me. This is why I love this message and organization— it is so needed and important!"

— JAMIE
