NICE TO MEET YOU

Hi there, I'm Taylor

If we haven't met yet, here's some helpful information about me! I'm a lifestyle, boudoir and couples photographer based in Austin, Texas. My passion is capturing the stories of amazing humans bringing them to life through my lens.

I've been fortunate to travel the world shooting for couples and I'm dedicated to representing you exactly as you are. Your story is unique and I'm honored to be a part of your journey together.

As far as my "style" - I take a photojournalistic or documentary approach to weddings. This means I care about the STORY of your wedding day + the story of you as a couple, and I use my skills to tell that story visually. No weird posing or faked smiles here - think candid, emotions, and beauty!

I will leave you with this: At the end of the day, your marriage and your photos will be what lasts. That's why I really care about my work: The cake will be eaten, the DJ will go home, the flowers will die (I don't mean to be morbid here - stay with me). I can confidently say that you will not be let down by investing in a high-quality, highly-experienced Wedding Photographer because the images and your spouse will be what you have for the rest of your lives. I've seen too many friends skimp on photography and the let down is so hard to see! So even if it's not me, I encourage you to find a photographer to invest in. Your money is valuable and I know weddings are expensive. But I have shot weddings for over 13 years now in various types of venues/lighting/cultural situations under my belt and am confident in my skills.

So, let's make some magic? ✨✨

The Signature Package

As of 2023, I am only taking on a limited amount of weddings in Texas for elopements and friends. With that said, here is my Signature Package that I offer for Full Weddings, with the option to customize more fully on the next page. If you feel your wedding will look distinctly different than this, please let me know and I can customize further.

"I can't say enough wonderful things about working with her! My husband and I were lucky enough to have Taylor photograph our wedding and I can't say enough wonderful things about working with her. She was incredibly warm and professional, open to listening to our vision and just went above and beyond from the moment we started working together. She captured our special day so perfectly. We love looking back at those photos to this day and look forward to using her again in the future!"

"Taylor Prinsen is the best of the best. She is the perfect mix of professional and friendly, and hiring her for your wedding photography is the best decision you'll make for your big day.

Despite the fact that we planned our whole wedding in 6 weeks, she made every effort to accommodate our crazy vision, and we got every single shot we dreamed up (and then some!).

She truly goes above and beyond, not just for the perfect photo, but to make the whole experience unforgettable. So grateful we hired her and 10/10 would hire again!
