

You're INVITED

We have all seen business models shift during this pandemic and as our team learned about virtual magic shows, we knew we needed to make this a reality for our customers!

Harrison Kramer is a world class professional magician in New York City and one of the most experienced interactive virtual Zoom entertainers in the world. His close-up magic, mentalism, and virtual Zoom shows have been booked by Google, Apple, Microsoft, as well as hundreds of other tech giants, finance firms, and fortune 500 companies from all over the world.

During the Zoom show, you will experience a live magic performance by Harrison. Harrison showcases incredible magic, mentalism, and mind-blowing feats of skill while constantly interacting with his audience. Throughout, you and your significant other will get to see and hear other Date Night In customers getting their minds boggled as Harrison seamlessly jumps between spotlighting himself and various attendees.

We have included items in your box that will bring the magic show to life! Harrison will perform magic and teach you magic! All of this allows for a truly unique online experience!

In an effort to accommodate schedules, we have arranged for three potential Zoom sessions for your attendance and will also provide a recording of our first show in the event that none of these times work with your schedule. It is strongly recommended to attend live if possible! Visit datenightinbox.com/magic for showtimes, more details and recordings!

Decide how you will build your night partaking in all the activities below. Setting the mood, cooking your curated dinner recipes and more can be enjoyed before the show while your snack can be enjoyed while watching the show! We also have several activities to follow up the magic show or they can be completed beforehand!
