

Laurel Avenue PRIMARY BEDROOM

LISA OBERST DESIGN

The master bedroom was envisioned as a true sanctuary. A place of rest, respite, and quiet serenity. Warm, muted tones are layered throughout the space, complemented by crisp brass accents that add a refined touch without disturbing the calm. Faux suede wallpaper adorns all walls to create immense softness. Automated shades rise and lower at the touch of a button, greeting each morning with soft light and offering privacy as evening settles in. Just beyond the bedroom, a spacious deck extends the sanctuary outdoors. This cozy, inviting area brings family together around the fireside to watch TV, unwind, and enjoy the fresh air, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor haven for the homeowners.
