How does Kat Matchmaking work?

Kat Matchmaking is your boutique Sacramento matchmaking service, dedicated to helping you find a lasting relationship that aligns with your desires. I limit my practice to a select number of clients to ensure I can devote the necessary time, expertise, and personalized attention to deliver your perfect match.

Every introduction is carefully curated, with each potential match undergoing a background check and vetting process I personally conduct. No client is ever sent on a “blind date”, and none of my matches are made with strangers to me or my firm.

Beyond relying on my own database of vetted, high-quality singles, I maintain access to the best networks in town. While I am selective in choosing clients, I do not maintain exclusivity for its own sake. It's about ensuring quality and readiness for serious relationships—because when it comes to the matters of your heart, only the best will do.

I go the extra mile to introduce you to the love of your life.

Is Kat Matchmaking right for you?

Single?

Seeking a lasting, loving, committed relationship?

Based in Sacramento, California, or nearby areas?

If so, we're off to a great start!

At Kat Matchmaking, I specialize in connecting selective, successful, Sacramento singles who are proactive in their search for a committed long-term relationship.

My clients lead busy, fulfilling lives, but are looking to add that 'special someone' to their mix. They understand that being proactive and engaging a professional matchmaker increases their chances of meeting the right person far beyond that of chance encounters or personal referrals.

My clients are go-getters with dreams and ambitions; they fully seize life and its opportunities. They are just like you—eager to make the most of every chance for happiness. If this resonates with you, Kat Matchmaking might be your next step towards finding love. Let's make it happen together!
