Featured Workshops

I empower people and organizations to harness the power of inclusion and opportunity to unlock their full capability. Below are a spotlight of my signature trainings.

Empathy & Intersectionality 101

True allyship starts with learning how our experiences differ and understanding the part our identities play out in relation to access to opportunities, power and privilege. By exercising our empathy muscle, we can lay the foundations for building an inclusive work environment. Increasing the ability to speak about empathy enables us to be better leaders to serve diverse employees and customers.

Inclusive Hiring & Networking

The idea you don't have is the voice you haven't heard. Our customers will be the most diverse in history, and our workforce reflecting that will lead to better innovation. Unsure how to get started with Inclusive Hiring? This series will teach you how to optimize your job ads, review your current network for blind spots, methods to reach untapped markets, how and where to market your job opportunities.

Overcoming Imposter Syndrome: The Dark Side of Leadership

In this powerful workshop, we will share techniques for recognizing and combating Imposter Syndrome in ourselves and others. Participants will learn strategies that they can implement feel more fulfilled and keys to unleash their full leadership capability, and live life on their own terms.

The Pain & Power of Being Asian During Covid

This powerful workshop centers healing & allyship as we dive deep into the power and pain of being Asian during Covid. We will explore how we can take care of our community, heal, take care of our mental health while recognizing the power that Asians have to be in solidarity with our BIPOC and great ally communities. Tune in to learn tactics to help you identify your role in being a better ally.
