

March 2023 Update

We just finished a week-long seminar at Mo Ranch in Hunt, Texas. By all accounts, it was one of our best ever. We had a bunch of folks that had previously attended one of our programs and over 30 new students! We have two outstanding seminars coming up soon:

In LA, we are holding a regional seminar on Opening Statement. It will be led by Milton Grimes and Kim Savo and will take place March 23-26.

The Women's Retreat for Powerful Storytelling is to be held in Santa Fe, New Mexico April 21-26. This outstanding seminar will be led by Betsy Greene, Cyndy Short, and Renee Stackhouse.

Additionally, the application deadline is April 15 for our annual 3-Week College to be held June 3-26 in Montezuma, New Mexico.

Do you have a friend or colleague that would benefit from one of these career changing seminars? Please take some time today to get the word out so that we teach the TLC methods to as many trial lawyers as we can! They can register at www.triallawyerscollege.org.

Thank you for all you do.

Love,

John
