

Not sure what to wear for your family session? Don't worry, I've got you. Think layers, muted earth tones, and various textures that photograph beautifully. The goal? Outfits that feel like you, with a little charm sprinkled in to display in your home year round. Keep it comfy and looser fitting for cozier poses. Choose one pattern and built your palette for everyone around it. Here are two trending color palettes to include denims + linens for spring and summer.
