Dunes

- Please don't walk on the (young) dunes in the gardens because this can damage the fragile vegetation.
- You have to buy a dune pass in order to visit the dune area behind our park. You can do this online (www.pwn.nl/natuur/duinkaart) or at the bookshop: Dekker&Dekker, Voorstraat 141, 1931 AK Egmond aan Zee.

E

Egmond information

- See the website www.egmond.nl for an agenda with all activities in the area.

F

Fireplace

- We have a fireplace inside and outside.
- Please use firelighters to start the fire, not paper.
- Always close the door of the fireplace when you use the fireplace.
- At the bottom of the door there is a ventilation slider to regulate the air into the fireplace: you can move this from left to right.
- If you run out of wood, you can buy new wood in the supermarket.

H

Heating

- You can adjust the thermostat by turning the switch.
- Please set the thermostat to 17 degrees when you check out.

Restaurants

Here are some of our recommendations:

- Egmond aan Zee (a 15min walk from Delvers) has plenty of restaurants to offer. However, these are some of our favourites; for the best apple pie with sea view please visit “De Windwijzer” (this is the small café at Boulevard Noord, nothing fancy but the pie is the best). Then nearby you’ll find on the beach towards the North “Strandpaviljoen Evi Beach” with a simple but good lunch menu. On the opposite side of the boulevard (South beach) you’ll find “Nautilus”, which is always good for a quick meal and/or drink since you are located at the beach front. Restaurant “Comer” is also lovely for a night out. And from March to September definitely try a delicious Italian ‘gelato’ at “Pravisani” (Voorstraat 120), they are here since 1947 and still serving the BEST ice cream in the region! :)
- Egmond aan den Hoef has a nice Indonesian food takeaway called “Rasa Lombok”.
- Egmond-Binnen has one of our all-time favourites: “Nieuw-Westert”. It is a renovated monumental farm, with a sunny terrace, beautiful gardens and outside play area for the kids!
- In Heiloo you’ll find the shopping mall “ ‘t Loo” (yes they have a HEMA 😊) where you can go for the very best coffee in the region: “Twinfin Coffee” and they have the best view on the little white church under the trees. If you’re there say ‘hi’ to the owner Milan from Koen and Linda!
- In Alkmaar (10-15 min away by car) there is a lovely restaurant & bar called “1480”. You can get there by taxi or drive yourself and park in the “Karperton” car park. There are several bars to have a drink on the “Waagplein” nearby. There you’ll find “Echt” for a healthy smoothie and more. For breakfast or lunch we always love “Sencha Lunchstore” (their cakes are to die for!) and don’t miss “Roast” for the best coffee.
- Bergen aan Zee has another favourite beach pavilion of ours: “Paviljoen Noord”. We are a BIG fan of their burgers & salads, and feel inspired by their interior design. In Bergen (the village) there are plenty of nice cafés and restaurants. For the best coffee and sandwiches we always go the other branch of “Echt”, which is located next to the Ruin Church.
- For dinner in a special location, you can go to “het Ruiterhuys” in Bakkum (Heereweg 83). There is a nice outdoor play area for the little ones too.

For these and more suggestions we also recommend to check our ‘guides’ on Instagram! Our account name is called ‘delvers_duinhuis_egmond’.

S

Sauna

Instructions for the sauna (you can also find these upstairs with the sauna):

- Turn the sauna on about 20 minutes before you want to use it.
- You can heat the sauna by turning the TOP button to the red numbers (these numbers show the length of time in hours).
- You can regulate the temperature with the button on the side (with the round circles). The bigger the circle, the hotter the sauna will be.
- The heater must be hot enough before you pour water over the stones. Don’t use too much water, all the water should evaporate.
- Please only use water, no other liquid in case of fire.

- Please always sit on a towel in the sauna.
- After using the sauna, you can open the skylight to cool down.
- When you are finished, please turn the top button back to '0' (zero) to turn the heater off.
- Enjoy :)

Shopping

- In Egmond aan Zee you can find the surfshop "Backyard Surfshop" for rental of boards, but they offer also apparel, swimshorts, etc. Then "Tally-ho", a lovely woman's apparel boutique, also resides in de Voorstraat.
- The nearby artists' village Bergen is also a must-see if you have never been before. There are lots of nice restaurants to choose from and lovely shops to visit. For example, another branch of "Tally-ho", the concept store "PT post", and home accessories & clothing store "Sissy-Boy" (often with a nice offer of kids' apparel) and "Stadspaviljoen Noord" for stylish kitchen knick knacks and homewares. Close to the Ruin Church is "Camelot" with brands such as Acne Studios, Ganni, Isabel Marant, etc. And from there around the corner definitely don't miss "l'Etoile store", the all-time favourite of Linda for Scandinavian interior design. Last – but not least as they say – you'll find down the road from l'Etoile the bakery + wine store (love that combination) "La Vie Locale".
- Alkmaar obviously has the high street stores and plenty of cheese stores, but also offer a few cute boutique style stores, such as "Dille & Kamille" for home goods and "TwentyoneWood" for stylish men and women apparel. However, besides these stores, personally we prefer to shop in Bergen or Haarlem over Alkmaar.

For more suggestions we recommend to check our 'guides' on Instagram! Our account name is called 'delvers_duinhuis_egmond'.

Supermarket

- There is a supermarket (Albert Heijn), fresh bakery, butcher, fishmonger, cheese shop, and liquor store all just approx. 200 metres from our Duinpark.
- The supermarket is open almost all year round from 8:00 am – 9:00 pm.
- There is a florist on the opposite side of the road.
- You can find more (food) shops nearby in the Voorstraat in Egmond aan Zee.
- Every Thursday morning there is a small market nearby the supermarket in Egmond aan Zee.

Smoking

- Smoking is only permitted outside on the terrace. Smoking is not allowed inside the house.

Surfboard

- The surfboard on the wall is for decoration only, please do not take it off the wall.
- For a surf shop we'd recommend you to go to Egmond aan Zee: Backyard Surfshop. Here you can book surf lessons, rent or buy surfboards and wetsuits. They also sell apparel and accessories, or you can just pop in for a coffee and a chat. Address: Voorstraat 102, Egmond aan Zee

Taxi

- Taxi Egmond: call 072 - 4444 072 or order online on the website <https://www.taxicentraleegmond.nl/>.

W

Washing machine & dryer

- Ecological washing detergents are available to use on the shelves on the right side of the machines.

Waste

- Separating the waste is possible, yet not mandatory. In the kitchen cupboard under the sink you will find 2 bins; one for green waste and one for plastic. Also new plastic bags (and compostable ones for the green waste) can be found in this cupboard.
- You can dispose of full garbage bags with residual waste in the waste container next to the parking area. You can open the container with the small black hanger attached to one of the house keys.
- You can dispose of glass in the glass container next to the waste container (no pass required).
- Full bags with green waste can go outside in our green waste bin, behind the bicycles.
- Full bags with plastic waste can be placed in the scullery (mud room).
- Carton and paper can be placed in the scullery as well.

Thank you for keeping the environment clean!
