Bella Coaching Disclaimer

Effective Date: January 01, 2025

At Bella Coaching, my heart is to come alongside parents with tools, guidance, and encouragement. I'm here to support your child's growth and help you feel more confident as a parent—but I'm not here to diagnose or provide formal evaluations. This page explains where my role begins and ends, so you know exactly what to expect.

1. Not Therapy or Medical Advice

I am an Educational Therapist, not a medical provider or licensed mental health clinician. The resources and coaching provided through Bella Coaching are for educational and informational purposes only. They are not a substitute for medical, psychological, or therapeutic care.

If you have concerns about your child's mental health, learning, or medical needs, please consult with a licensed professional such as a pediatrician, psychologist, or licensed therapist.

2. Screenings vs. Evaluations

Bella Coaching offers screenings only, not formal evaluations. Specifically:

- I provide screenings for executive function skills (using tools such as the BRIEF-2).
- I administer the Gilliam Autism Rating Scale (GARS-3) as a screening tool.
- Screenings are designed to give parents insight and direction—but they do not replace a full evaluation by a licensed psychologist, neuropsychologist, or diagnostic professional.

I do not conduct psychoeducational evaluations, diagnostic assessments, or formal testing required for school services or medical diagnoses.

3. Results and Outcomes

Every child is unique. While I strive to provide strategies and tools that support emotional regulation, learning, and growth, results will vary. Bella Coaching does not guarantee specific outcomes.

4. Responsibility

By using Bella Coaching Services, you agree that you are responsible for how you apply the information and resources provided.
