REAL WEDDING

Nicole & Anthony

Nicole and Anthony Moskowski's love story began in 2009 when they met through mutual friends at various parties. Although they stayed connected over the years, it wasn't until 2014 when Anthony unexpectedly ran into Nicole at her workplace that their relationship took a new turn. In early 2015, Anthony made it official by asking Nicole to prom, and after dating for 10 years, he proposed on Nicole's birthday with a romantic surprise of balloons, rose petals, photos, and candles arranged in their first home together. Their wedding was thoughtfully planned and designed by Nicole's sister and maid of honour, Alyssa Mauro of Event Shoppe by Alyssa & Co., who infused the day with a heartfelt tribute to family, heritage, and modern elegance.

The ceremony took place at St. David's Parish, followed by a reception at Château Le Parc, where a timeless black-and-white palette and meaningful cultural traditions brought their decade-long love story vividly to life.

Nicole's bridal gown featured a removable overskirt designed by Made with Love Bridal. She also wore a bracelet gifted by her sisters (her maids of honour). Anthony complemented Nicole's sophisticated style in a velour tuxedo from Harry Rosen, personalized with a watch from his parents and cufflinks gifted by Nicole's parents.

SENTIMENTAL SURPRISES

Guests entered the reception at CHÂTEAU LE PARC to find a striking 360-degree seating chart installation, thoughtfully designed as both a seating guide and a poignant photo opportunity. The display also featured cherished images of the couple's late grandparents, framed by the heartfelt message, "We know you'd be here if heaven wasn't so far away." Secretly planned by the bride's sister and event planner, Alyssa, in collaboration with their parents, the tribute created a deeply emotional welcome.

Another heartfelt surprise followed — a beautifully detailed sketch of the bride and groom, lovingly drawn by the groom's mother.

ROMANTIC REVEAL

Inside the ballroom, Alyssa and her team at EVENT SHOPPE BY ALYSSA & CO. transformed the space with a modern black-and-white aesthetic. White roses and soft candlelight filled the room, creating a romantic ambiance that felt both timeless and tailored. Every layer of the design reflected the couple's story, brought to life with intention, love, and sisterly insight.

"The decor, white roses and candles that filled the room, set a beautiful and romantic ambiance."

-Nicole Moskowski, Bride

“As both the wedding planner and the bride’s sister and maid of honour, this wedding was more than just an event—it was a heartfelt tribute to love, family, and heritage.”

SENTIMENTAL SPIRIT

Once the festivities began, the reception came alive with high-energy moments, heartfelt surprises, and cultural traditions that kept the dance floor full all night. One of the most unforgettable highlights was when the bride’s father took to the stage, performing on accordion alongside his lifelong friend on saxophone—a surprise performance that paid homage to their years playing together in a wedding band. The music continued with a lively lineup of Italian and Macedonian wedding traditions. Every beat of the evening was intentional—planned to entertain, delight, and reflect the couple’s playful, sentimental spirit.

“Our wedding wouldn’t have been possible without my sister Alyssa,” shares Nicole. “Her vision, dedication, and heart brought every detail to life and made our day truly unforgettable.”

After the wedding, Nicole and Anthony jetted off to Hawaii for a romantic honeymoon, where they explored both Maui and Honolulu. Highlights included whale watching, sunrise at the summit of Haleakalā National Park, and enjoying their first days of married life soaking in the natural beauty of the islands. Now back home in Bolton, Ontario, Nicole works in financial services while Anthony is an account executive.
